Dear Friends:

Today day we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost. Pentecost, celebrated 50 days after Easter, is one of the most important celebrations of the Church's calendar, and serves as a kind of birthday for the Church. On this important solemnity, the Church remembers the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Lord's Apostles, as described in the second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles. As we read in Acts, it is by means of the Holy Spirit that the Apostles are able to finally heed the command of Christ, "Do not be afraid," and to boldly take to the streets to proclaim the saving message of Jesus and his resurrection. All of these men, with the traditional exception of John, would one day face martyrdom, shedding their blood in solemn witness to the Faith and proclaiming to the world the triumph of Christ crucified. The Holy Spirit made these cowards to be heroes, and empowered them to fulfill the mission entrusted to them by Jesus Christ. Importantly, this Feast takes its name from the Jewish celebration of "first fruits," a day set aside for the sacred and solemn offering of bread created by the grains of the year's harvest, and taking place 50 days after Passover. When understood in the light of the Jewish feast of the same name, one begins to see the connection of this Feast of the Holy Spirit with the Holy Eucharist, the Source and Summit of our Faith. Just as bread is created when fire is applied to wheat and to water, so too are the Apostles transformed when the fire of the Holy Spirit is applied to their body and souls, and they are empowered by that same Spirit to satisfy the world's hunger for the Good News. In like manner, it is by means of the descent of the Holy Spirit, eternally equal in majesty and power to the Father and Son, that ordinary bread and wine become the very body and blood of Jesus, the source of our strength and consolation in the spiritual life. Indeed, every Mass is another Pentecost, in which we offer to God the bread of our lives on the altar of sacrifice, and in which He offers to us His own Divine Life on that same table, empowering us to "be not afraid" and to set the world ablaze with His life-giving love.

In today's bulletin the Parish Pastoral Council has inserted our new Pastoral Plan for 2014-2019. This is our second cycle of Pastoral Planning based on the six goals of the Diocesan Pastoral Plan. The PPC and Pastoral Team have spent long hours preparing our plan and we will be looking for your assistance and many gifts to help us meet our goals and objectives. I want to thank the PPC for their dedication to the life of the Parish. Please take the time to read our new plan and if you have any questions please feel free to call the office or ask one of the 10 members of the PPC. Their names are found in the pamphlet.

God Bless . Fr. Gary

In Memoriam

We pray for the repose of the soul of Marvin Chomyshyn, Brother of Linda Hill, Luc
Barrette, Father of Pauline (Ron) Strong and Jim Cada, Husband of Anne.

May they all rest in God's love and peace.

St. Vincent de Paul thanks all who so generously give items in the donation bins. Please remember that only gently used items are acceptable. We are experiencing a large amount of yard sale type items that we are unable to sell in the stores. Due to the Ontario Safe Requirements we are unable to accept bike helmets, car seats, flotation devices & cribs.
The extraordinary cost to dispose of these items or items needing repairs puts a burden on the St. Vincent de Paul resources.
Thank you for your cooperation & your continued generosity.
