The Empty Chair” – Grief and Loss during the holidays

As the holiday season approaches many people find it difficult after the loss of a loved one, to know how to go about “surviving” the holidays.

Those things that once were a great source of joy and warmth may be difficult now with the death of a loved one. With our session entitled “the Empty Chair” we will look at how we can not only “survive” the holidays, but slowly again celebrate in a new way those meaningful times and celebrate the lives of our loved one’s.
