32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Nov. 11, 2012

Dear Friends:

On October 11th this of this year we began the Year of Faith. Our parish is offering a number of opportunities to grow in our faith throughout this year. We have the Arise program, Scripture Course and the Catholicism Series. One of the things I hear often from people is that because of work and family commitments they are unable to attend these opportunities to grow in faith. Well I have something for you.

For this Year of Faith Pope Benedict has encouraged all of us to study and reflect on the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Well, here's an easy and free way to do it. Simply go to <http://www.flocknote.com/catechism> and enter your email address and you'll start getting a little bit of the Catechism emailed to you every morning. Read that little bit everyday and you'll read the whole catechism in a year. This will be a great way for you to grow in the knowledge of our Church and its teachings and at the same time grow in Faith.

This Sunday being Remembrance Day I want to share with you this prayer I found that was written in 2008. It helps us realize how many sacrifices have been made for our Peace and how each of us must pray for peace each day.

God of peace and love, on this 11th day of the 11th month we once again gather to remember. We remember that in Jesus of Nazareth you have called us to be people of peace saying, "Blessed are the peacemakers" and reminding us that we are to love our neighbour and our enemy as we love ourselves. But we also acknowledge that there are times when we as a global community fail to live out those words, times when young men and women hear the call to don the uniforms of their country and serve under their flag. Today we give thanks for all who have chosen to serve their country. We give thanks for their bravery, their commitment, and their love. But we know that when armies meet on the field there are always some who don't come home. And so we pause in the memory of those who went and did not return to mothers, wives, husbands and children left behind.

We remember battles at Ypres, and Passchendale, and Vimy Ridge in the war we were told would end all wars, battles where the blood of enemies mingled in the mud and water of France and Belgium. And we remember those who fell in the war that came a scarce generation later. And again young men died in places like Hong Kong, and Ortona, and Dieppe, and Juno Beach, and in the Netherlands.

We remember all who fell and were buried far from home, or who sank to a watery grave in the cold Atlantic.

Holy Family Retreat House in Oxley is offering a Men's Retreat on the weekend of November 17-18, 2012. The present will be Father Bud Pare, C.B.S. who will speak on the theme of taking an opportunity to ponder the goodness of God and His call to a deeper holiness. If you need any information, please call Bill Sutton at #519-257-0086 or e-mail at willie.s@cdpwise.net or Deacon Giroux at the Holy Family Retreat House at #519-738-6136 Ext. 224.

Then as the years past the roles changed and we sent our best to help keep the peace in places like Cyprus, and the Golan Heights, and Cambodia. And still some died and were buried. And now, in these last few months we find that our young have returned to the battlefield, only to have 42 of them return in a coffin carried solemnly to a waiting aircraft.

God, whose hope for the world is peace, on this day we not only remember the fallen of Canada who lie buried under a military tombstone. We remember also the fallen of Germany, and Japan, and France, and Australia or Italians, and native Afghanis, and English. This day we honour all who die as a result of humanity's common failing to live in the peace you have hoped for all these millennia.

God, we pray too for those who returned from battle forever changed by what they had seen. For those who bore, and still bear, wounds of body and soul. And now, God of love, as we have remembered and honoured, we prepare to go back into our everyday lives. May the remembering we have done here today reawaken and strengthen our commitment to work for peace, true peace. Help us to remember that peace will never truly come from a gun barrel but from the depths of our hearts. Help us remember our calling to be peacemakers at home and abroad, in the big things and in the small. And may we never forget the cost that has already been paid.

God of peace that surpasses all understanding, we pray our remembrances and our hopes in the name of Christ, the Prince of Peace.

Father Gary
