30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 25, 2009

Dear Friends:

As October quickly flies by, we are planning for a number of great celebrations coming up in November and December that I would like to share with you today.

As mentioned throughout this past year, on Saturday November 7th 2009, at 11:00am at St. Peter's Cathedral in London, Roy Brothers from our parish will be ordained a Permanent Deacon for the Diocese of London. Roy and his wife Virginia have been long time parishioners at St. Gregory Site. I ask you to please keep Roy in your prayers as he approaches his ordination. Roy will be assigned to Good Shepherd Parish beginning officially January 2010. The Pastoral Team and I look forward to working with Roy, and I know he will be a wonderful gift to the parish. On Nov. 14 & 15 at St. Gregory Site and on Nov. 22 at St. William Site, a coffee time will take place after all the Masses to welcome Roy. Hope you will take the time to meet him and welcome him to the Pastoral Team.

On November 1, 2009, we celebrate the Feast of All Saints and on November 2, we celebrate the Feast of All Souls. As in past years we will remember all those who have died in our parish and our families. This will take place at both sites at the weekend Masses on Oct. 31st/Nov. 1st. We will have a time of remembering, following the Homily. At St. William site, we also welcome the K of C Members of Council 2775 who will have a memorial celebration for their deceased members. Please read more about this celebration and how you can have the name of your loved one mentioned during the Mass, in today's bulletin.

I once again take this opportunity to thank all those who have returned their pledges. Each day more are coming in, and I am overwhelmed by your generosity. Please consider your pledge today and help us reach our goal.

Father Gary
