27th Sunday in Ordinary Time October 3, 2010

Dear Friends:

The municipal elections on Monday, October 25, 2010, will allow Catholics to elect the trustees who will govern our Catholic schools for the next four years. I want to take this opportunity to remind you, the parishioners of Good Shepherd Parish, of your responsibility to vote in the election of Catholic school trustees on October 25th. I invite you to become knowledgeable about the issues, to attend any candidate meetings in your area, to assess the candidates carefully, and to vote for the candidate who will best serve our Catholic schools. In its brochure "A Call to Service: Catholic Trustees – Advocates, Guardians and Stewards of Catholic Education", the Ontario Catholic School Trustees Association lists some basic qualifications of a Catholic trustee. It states that "our Catholic school boards need trustees who have a vision of Catholic education that is Christ-centered, are committed to educating students in the Roman Catholic tradition, are willing to work with all partners within and beyond the Catholic education community, are willing to devote time to prayer and reflection, to meetings, to public functions, and to addressing concerns of Catholic school voters." A trustee should be a faithful, practicing Catholic. Only registered Catholic school supporters are eligible to vote in the election of Catholic school trustees. I ask all parishioners of Good Shepherd Parish to consider Catholic Education for your child/children. If you are unsure about where your support is directed please check your property tax bill, or contacting your local Catholic school board or municipal office. The challenges that our Catholic schools have faced over the past 150 years should convince us that we cannot take our Catholic school system for granted. Our Catholic school trustees have the grave responsibility of ensuring the continuing well-being of our Catholic schools. I ask you to take an active interest in our Catholic schools and to vote conscientiously in the elections on October 25th.

Father Gary
