"Jesus said to him the third time, 'Simon, son of John, do you love me?'" Three times, Simon Peter had denied Jesus. Now, three times, the risen Christ gives Peter the opportunity to announce his love. Although Peter was "distressed" by the Lord's repeated question, ultimately this must have been a healing moment in Peter's life. He finally had the opportunity to assure Jesus that he loved him, thereby making up for his earlier failure and weakness on the night of the Crucifixion.

Jesus' death on the cross sufficed to forgive us of our sins. But his resurrection assures us that there is new life on the other side of our sinfulness. Just as Jesus had the power to conquer death, so too through his grace we have the power to conquer our sins. We can live a resurrected life, we can have a new beginning, just as Peter did that day at the Sea of Tiberias when he pledged his faith anew.

This pledge of faith, it's interesting to note, also came with a kind of commission. Each time that Peter told the Lord he loved him, Jesus responded with a command: "Feed my lambs," "Tend my sheep," and "Feed my sheep." Of course, we know that Jesus had already established Peter as the "rock" on which he built his church, as the first pope. Now, Jesus was emphasizing the connection between loving him--the Good Shepherd--and loving his people, his flock, his church. Peter's love for Christ was meant to be manifested in his love and care for the church, as is the case with every pope. But it's also true for every Christian. We are called not just to relish the gift of forgiveness and the grace of new life in Christ, but to take the next step of loving and serving those around us.

Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish.

Mystagogy

Join Fr. Geoffrey on Sunday, April 10 at 1:15PM to experience a Mystagogy: the ancient tradition of the church that discusses experiencing the ritual and liturgical symbols of the Easter Triduum and unpacks their meaning. Often, when we experience something that has touched or moved us in the liturgy at Mass, we do not always realize the fuller meaning that moment until it is discussed, shared, explained and reflected on. This spiritual and educational process is called Mystagogy and all are invited to participate. Please feel free to bring a bag lunch. Cookies and coffee will be provided.

Seeking Peace

The Seeking Peace Team is offering the second in a series of workshops on Sunday, May 1st from 1:15PM to 3:15PM in the Parish Hall.
