3rd Sunday of Easter

"He stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' But they were startled and terrified." What was so terrifying about being wished peace? How ironic that the disciples were so scared right at the moment that Jesus was offering them peace.

The fact is that they didn't understand what was going on. They were already aware at this point that Jesus had risen from the dead, and two of them had just had a powerful encounter with him on the road to Emmaus. But now, he suddenly appeared before them, in a manner that was not only totally unexpected, but also apparently physically impossible. This is why they thought they were seeing a ghost. It just didn't make sense.

Jesus reassured them with concrete actions. He told them to look at him and to touch him. He wanted his disciples to be comforted by his real physical presence among them. He wanted them to come into contact with his entire being, not just the abstract idea of his presence. Once they did this, they were "incredulous for joy and were amazed." The peace that he wished for them was now complemented by great joy. It just took a while to sink in.

This may be the case for us at times too. We may not understand the mysterious ways in which Jesus is present in our lives. Sometimes he is hidden in what Mother Teresa called "the distressing disguise." His Spirit may be present, wishing to bring us peace right in the midst of stress, sickness, anguish, or pain, but we may not recognize him at first. But just because he may not "show up" in the way we expect doesn't mean he isn't with us. The risen Christ also wants to give us the gift of peace.

Special Centennial Celebration Offering

The Archdiocese of Winnipeg is celebrating our Centennial at a special Mass at the MTS Centre on May 3, 2015. As part of our research and a sign of generosity, the Archbishop is asking parishes to take up a collection for "Returning to Spirit" on the weekends of Sunday, April 19 and Sunday, April 26. The Archbishop believes that there should be a good and practical work of charity attached to our Centennial event. "Returning to Spirit" is a proven method that does bring reconciliation and new hope to all concerned and as we mark our 100th Anniversary we need to reach out to those in need as Pope Francis encourages us. By making this collection a success, we will celebrate our Centennial in a truly significant way by reaching out, towards our neighbours.

Returning to Spirit is a not-profit charitable organization which aims to bring about reconciliation between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal communities. The mission of RTS is "to create a cultural bridge and give everyone a chance to transform the negative legacy of the Residential Schools, to one of empowerment and possibility."

A good number of our clergy and parishioners have taken part in the reconciliation workshops. Please consider supporting this reconciling work. Envelopes will be provided to accept your gift."

Catholic Women's League

A heartfelt "Thank You" to parishioners who supported the March 8 Fundraiser Sale. Your donations of goods and your purchases at the sale netted a total of $356.00. Some items were not sold so we expect to hold one more sale in July. Since we are a national organization, proceeds are shared with national, international and local charities, as well as with the parish in donations of money and purchase of kitchen supplies. Contributions from our fundraisers and from CWL Council members are allocated to our charities throughout the year, e.g. St. Mary's Cathedral, Villa Rosa, Siloam Mission, Catholic Missions in Canada, Catholic Near East Refugee associations. Honorariums are given to guest presenters at events that are open to the parish such as the presentations on End of Life Care and Relations with Indigenous People. The Sunday morning Coffee after 9:30 Mass is sponsored by CWL. Some money is required for administrative purposes such as the November memorial in recognition of the services of past CWL members, CWL brochures and annual diocesan convention. Members are generous in paying for administrative costs and lunches, as well as giving monthly to CCODP and Fellowship of the Least Coin at our meetings. (P.S. We would like more members.)
