"This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." When people watch us, do they know that we are the disciples of Jesus?

As Christians, we are called to do more than love the Lord. We are called to be his witnesses in the world by loving others as well. In today's Gospel reading, he gave us a new commandment, "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." Anyone, everyone, should be able to look at us and see this love in action. If we are not witnesses to this love, then we are falling short of our mission.

So, how did Jesus love us? Selflessly. His love was never motivated by personal gain. On the contrary, he often suffered for us, and not just on the cross. He faced rejection and animosity for loving those who were considered "unlovable" in his culture. He lived a life of poverty and simplicity, never focused on amassing things for himself, but always willing to give of himself. This is the love we are called to imitate.

The task can feel daunting. We are not perfect people, and being witnesses to Christ-like love can strike us as a lofty challenge. Of course, it's easier to be selfless and generous with people who love us in return, or with those who stir our compassion. But to be consistent witnesses to loving one another in all circumstances--like Jesus does for us--that takes it to another level. Thankfully, however, Jesus doesn't expect us to do this on our own. He promises us his Spirit to live in us and love through us. Through our baptism, we have his Spirit dwelling in our hearts, along with the supernatural gifts of faith, hope, and love. May we make these gifts flourish.

"I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another." - Jn 13:34-35

Archdiocesan Pilgrimage Event at the Shrine of St. Gianna

On May 1, 2016, the parish community of St. Gianna Beretta Molla will celebrate the Feast Day in honour of our contemporary Patron Saint. The celebration in the context of Evening Prayer will begin at 7:00 p.m. and will include personal testimonies from those who have known the intercessory power of this contemporary Saint.

The evening will also include the opportunity to reverence the First Class relic of St. Gianna that was given to the Parish Shrine by the Molla Family.

Since this Shrine was declared an Archdiocesan pilgrimage place for the Year of Mercy, we extend an invitation to all parishes and communities to come and join this celebration.

A light reception and time of fellowship will follow.

Doors open at 5:30 p.m.

ANNUAL PRIESTS' RETREAT AND MASS SCHEDULE

The priests of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg will be at their retreat in Pinawa, Manitoba beginning Monday, April 25th and ending Friday, April 29th.

As per the cathedral's custom, the floors of the church will be stripped and waxed during this time. There will be no access into the church building during this spring cleaning.

Also, the church office will be closed from Wednesday, April 27th until Friday, April 29th.

It is impossible to live in our modern world without being touched in some way by addiction - your own, a family member, co-worker, or friend. We tend to focus on the more dramatic and obvious addictions such as to drugs, alcohol and pornography while missing the more subtle addictions such as gaming, smart phones, food, work, etc. If you have any questions and want to learn more, join your fellow parishioners in a faith-based exploration of addiction:

Sunday May 1st from 1:15 pm —3:15 pm—
