Tickets booked, packing list double-checked, itinerary set - how do you know you're prepared for a trip? Being ready requires plenty of practical preparation. Do we give the same care to our spiritual preparedness? "Your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom," Jesus tells us. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reminds us to have the right attitude for the gifts and callings he wants to give us!

Clear out your clutter! "Where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." Jesus reminds the disciples that earthly standards of security and success will wear out in time. If our lives are structured around values that don't align with the kingdom of God, we'll miss opportunities to receive God. If we're so concerned with our child's success in sports that we miss Sunday Mass for their tournaments, we're missing out receiving the sacraments and building a consistent community of faith. If our quest for the promotion takes us away from family commitments, we won't be able to fully receive the love intended in our closest relationships.

Set faith-based priorities. "Blessed are those servants whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival." Our conflicting commitments can cause any routine to slip from time to time. All the more reason to make sure faith is a priority. Pray as a family before meals. Bring your children regularly to the sacrament of confession. Make room in the schedule for faith enrichment activities offered by your parish. Volunteer once a month. "At an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." When will the call come to care for an ailing parent? To take on a new leadership position? God speaks to us through the circumstances of our lives. He calls each of us to greater love, sometimes in very concrete ways. This week, take some time to consider: Will you be ready?

This week we remember the following names on our Tree of Life:

— Lk 12:37-38

Funerals and pre-arrangements

Pre-arranging a funeral is not uncommon and can help minimize some of the stress and emotion that result from the death of a loved one. Join Fr. Geoffrey on Sunday, August 25th at 1:15pm in the Cathedral Hall as he covers some basic steps and questions surrounding this difficult but necessary topic.

Archbishop Gagnon publishes historic document, 'Disciples on the Way'

Pentecost Sunday marked another milestone in the history of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg. On June 9, 2019, Archbishop Richard Gagnon promulgated his post-synodal pastoral letter entitled, Disciples on the Way. The document provides a clear history of the Archdiocese's two-year Synod process (2016-2018), the fruits that have resulted from it, and the basic principles of implementation that will unfold over the next five years. Disciples on the Way is an official proclamation coming out of this historic Synod (the Archdiocese's first and only), and we are all encouraged to read, pray, and have conversations about it in our communities as we carefully reflect on its teachings.

Copies of Disciples on the Way can be found at the entrances of the church as well as the cathedral office.

For an electronic copy go to www.archwinnipeg.ca

Book Club

Join Fr. Geoffrey in reading and discussing the book "Living Stewardship: How to be Grateful, Generous and In the Moment" by Fr. Darrin Gurr. This book is foundational for an "everyday" spirituality of the "everyday" person. Books may be purchased in the Hospitality Centre. The first session will be held on Sunday, August 18th at 1:15PM in the Parish Hall.

Please call the office to register.
