18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"So they said to him, 'What can we do to accomplish the works of God?' Jesus answered and said to them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in the one he sent.'" These fledgling believers came to Jesus seeking direction. They had witnessed his miracles, heard his teachings, and been miraculously fed by his hands. Now they wanted to know what they should do. How should they respond to the revelations they were beholding?

Most of us would expect an "active" answer to a question like theirs. We tend to think of God's work as things like the corporal works of mercy--feeding the hungry and sheltering the homeless--or the spiritual works of mercy--instructing the ignorant, comforting the afflicted, and so on. But Jesus gives a surprising answer. Instead of focusing on these external tasks, he tells the crowd that God's work is to believe in him. They should accept the gift God gave: the Son. This, apparently, is the appropriate starting point for doing God's work.

And really, it makes sense. If we move too quickly into doing external actions, we risk not having enough interior strength behind them. Feeding the hungry is always good, but feeding the hungry as an expression of our love for Jesus is going to enable us to feed them with more compassion, more generosity, and more long-term commitment.

When faith in Jesus is foremost in our lives, then the other important tasks that are all part of God's work will fall into place. If we love Jesus, we will naturally want to love his people. So let us examine the good works that we do and be sure that they have as their starting point a deep and abiding faith in the Son of God.

Prayer for Summer

Father, creator of all, thank you for summer: Thank you for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight. Thank you for the beauty I see all around me and for the Opportunity to be outside and enjoy your creation. Thank you for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family, and for the more casual pace of the summer season. Draw me closer to you this summer. Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing. Warm my soul with the awareness of your presence and light my path with your word and counsel. As I enjoy your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for you.

Amen.

Planting Our Heart Garden

Sunday, August 30th at 1 p.m. As part of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and to show our commitment to a new relationship with Indigenous Canadians, parishioners made hearts for a Heart Garden at the end of May in honour of children who went to Residential School and those who went but did not make it home. You are invited to join the planting of our parish's Heart Garden on Sunday, August 30th at 1 p.m.! We will have a prayer service, Indigenous drummers and speakers, and the planting of the hearts followed by a reception.

Jesus said to them, " I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst."
