The cake is frosted, the guests have arrived, and the gifts are piled high. One by one, the packages are opened, and one by one, the child reaches for another. Who among us hasn't seen a child who appears crestfallen when the gifts run out? Even the abundance isn't quite enough. Today's Gospel tackles a key question in the spiritual life - grateful or greedy? "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest." We all recognize the need to be practical. Raising a family, there's need to save for all sorts of things beyond normal day-to-day costs - medical bills, family vacations, private school, rainy day funds, retirement. Jesus doesn't critique the rich man for simply having an abundant harvest. It's his mentality. Does the rich man sell off the extra to make the needed repairs to the back fence or to invest in some additional livestock to grow the business? Perhaps donate some of the excess to the poor? No. "You have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!" The man wants to hoard and indulge with no concern for others. Jesus doesn't condemn prudent saving or owning necessary items. He calls us to purify our attitudes. "Guard against all greed... one's life does not consist of possessions." We are called to be good stewards. This means being practical. It also means remaining open to God's invitation with our resources. Are we tithing to our parish? Do we give alms to the poor? Does our weekly entertainment far outstrip what we offer to others? Life is not about "stor[ing] up treasure for [our]selves." The more we grow in gratitude and generosity, the more we become "rich in what matters to God."

This week we remember the following names on our Tree of Life:

- August 5 Anita Webb
- August 7 Stella Bjornson
- August 9 Violet R. Jones
- Mary Kaskiw
- August 10 Fidel Soledad Sabiaga
- Josefina Oalin Cabayao

"Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord..."

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."

Archbishop Gagnon publishes historic document, 'Disciples on the Way'

Pentecost Sunday marked another milestone in the history of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg. On June 9, 2019, Archbishop Richard Gagnon promulgated his post-synodal pastoral letter entitled, Disciples on the Way. The document provides a clear history of the Archdiocese's two-year Synod process (2016-2018), the fruits that have resulted from it, and the basic principles of implementation that will unfold over the next five years. Disciples on the Way is an official proclamation coming out of this historic Synod (the Archdiocese's first and only), and we are all encouraged to read, pray, and have conversations about it in our communities as we carefully reflect on its teachings.

Copies of Disciples on the Way can be found at the entrances of the church as well as the cathedral office.

For an electronic copy go to www.archwinnipeg.ca
