He said to them, "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?"
 Luke 4:21-22

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

People who play the lottery are always hoping for that big chance to win a super jackpot. Against all odds (literally!) they imagine winning millions. After all, someone has to win. It might as well be me. It's almost contradictory that lotteries have become part of government budgeting, when many Canadians believe in the values of hard work and earning a living as opposed to the gratuitous windfall that a lottery would give someone. For the outlay of a miniscule amount of cash, a player dreams of an immense return. And the government gets a bonus to its income without having to tax its citizens more.

In today's Gospel, the people of Nazareth are acting a bit like lottery hopefuls, with high expectations for a significant payout with the investment of very little. They've heard about all the great things that Jesus did in Capernaum, and now they are expecting to cash in on the local boy made good. Surely he has got to work some astounding miracles here.

But Jesus is not a lottery ticket. And faith in him is not a something for nothing proposition in which all the benefits are reaped with very little investment. As we will learn as we read from Luke's Gospel in the weeks and months ahead, Jesus is headed on a journey to Jerusalem. His destiny lies in that city where he will suffer and die, and finally, through his resurrection, he will usher in the era of the Spirit that is poured out on the church. For us, following Jesus is a lifelong journey to our own Jerusalem in which we empty ourselves in the service of others. It is no lottery that we hope to win, but a share in Christ's journey through death to resurrection.

Stewardship for Feb 03– 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Through our baptism we each share in the prophetic mission of Jesus and this calls us to speak truth by the example of our lives. The stewardship lifestyle is swimming against the current of the ‘what’s in it for me’, accumulate more and more stuff, way of living that our secular society touts as the best way to live. Those who have the courage to live the stewardship way may feel unpopular at times, even among those closest to them. “No prophet is accepted in his own hometown” says our Lord in today’s Gospel. Committing to the stewardship lifestyle does indeed require the virtues of patience and perseverance.
