Mission Statement

As the Cathedral parish of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, we welcome and serve all people on their faith journey as we promote and celebrate the Catholic faith in the living Christ. Through excellent liturgy, we are inspired to embrace social justice and diversity, and foster personal growth. In an atmosphere of acceptance, we encourage hopefulness, love and transformation.

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Occasionally we hear someone speak about experiencing a miracle. Usually it involves rescue from some accident or health crisis. "It was a miracle that car didn't hit me, the way they were driving" or "It was a miracle they were able to save her leg, the way that it was smashed." We even talk about "miracle" drugs, a reference to the amazing properties of life-saving antibiotics, antivirals, and certain other compounds. Miracles have a character of the unexplained to them. While scientists can describe in great detail the action of "miracle" drugs, to the rest of us they seem just amazing. Doctors can illuminate the process by which someone is healed through surgery and therapy, but again, it seems almost unbelievable when we see the results. Engineers can detail why a collision never happened, but to those who escape harm, it seems like a miracle indeed!

The miracle at the wedding feast at Cana in Galilee is the third aspect of what comprises the manifestation of Christ known as the Epiphany mystery. (The appearance of the Magi and the baptism at the Jordan are the other two.) In his Gospel, John describes the action by Jesus at Cana as a "sign" that reveals his glory. It is the revelation of his glory that causes the disciples to believe in him. Jesus is made manifest, and so people come to believe. It is what happened to the Magi; it is what happened to the crowds gathered at the Jordan; it is what happens to the disciples who are with him at the wedding feast.

The wonder of God's glory is not reserved to spectacular miracles that take place only at rare intervals. It is a wonder that a drug can cure someone, or that a surgeon can work so skillfully, or that for whatever reason, accidents are avoided. Seeing the manifestation of God's action each day is the sign of one who believes that the Word is made flesh and dwells among us.

*There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine."
 John 2:3*

Stewardship January 20th – 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mary tells the servants at the wedding in Cana, “Do whatever he tells you”. In other words...trust him. One of the virtues of the Christian disciple and steward is trust. When we put our trust in at-risk things like jobs, bank accounts, and what we think are our own abilities, we are extremely vulnerable to anxiety and fear. When we put our trust in God, who is the only source of all that we are able to accomplish or accumulate, we enjoy freedom from useless worry. Good stewards trust God explicitly and that enables them to give generously and freely.

The Tree of Life provides a wonderful life-giving way to remember our loved ones who have passed away. Each leaf, with the deceased's name, date of death and a brief scripture passage or some cherished words, brings near to us those who at times seem so far away. If you wish to have your name added one day to the "Tree of Life", your leaf can be pre-ordered and held in trust. For more information on the "Tree of Life," please call the Parish Office at 947-0294.
