3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

When parents bring their children for baptism, the first thing in the ceremony that the priest or deacon asks them is, "What name have you given to your child?" Parents select the names they bestow on their children for a host of reasons: family tradition, personal meaning, a connection to admired individuals, the beauty of how it sounds, or a name's particular meaning are but a few. Even if a child later on chooses to be known by some other name, most often it will be a variation of the original given by the parents. Elizabeth can become Betty or Liza; Robert turns into Bob; Jason shortens to Jase; and Caroline can be known as Carly.

Scripture scholars are divided on whether the person named at the beginning of Luke's Gospel is a particular individual, or whether he stands for all those who would hear the story of Jesus. His name, Theophilus, means one who loves God, so the name could be just as likely allegorical as actual. In any event, the story of Jesus that Luke organized and wrote is directed toward someone whose very name suggests a connection to the divine. The good news of Jesus is intended for one who loves God.

That does not mean to exclude every Tom, Dick, and Harry or Barb, Jane, and Mary. No matter what our first name actually means, as a son or daughter of God in baptism, we are all "Theophilus," that is, lovers of God. The story of Jesus—the welcome he gives to the poor and the outcast, the Spirit that is poured out on him and on his followers, the journey to Jerusalem where the fulfillment of the Father's will is accomplished—is our story. And as we listen to the Gospel from Luke in the year ahead we can pray that we become ever more lovers of God, who calls us all by name.

Stewardship January 27th – 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are the body of Christ. Christ's body, the church, is made up of a diverse group of people with an equally diverse set of gifts. All of the gifts serve a purpose, none is more important than the other. Is the heart more important than the veins? In our physical bodies all the parts are essential for optimum health. It is the same with the body of Christ. It is essential that we all work together, sharing our gifts to build up the Church and transform our world.

The Tree of Life provides a wonderful life-giving way to remember our loved ones who have passed away. Each leaf, with the deceased's name, date of death and a brief scripture passage or some cherished words, brings near to us those who at times seem so far away. If you wish to have your name added one day to the "Tree of Life", your leaf can be pre-ordered and held in trust. For more information on the "Tree of Life," please call the Parish Office at 947-0294.
