Today's Gospel offers a rare framework — a story in a story. Most of the healing miracles are standalone encounters. One person approaches Jesus, demonstrates faith, and is healed. The evangelist tells the next story. This Gospel, however, is different. Jesus is on his way to heal one person, a young girl of twelve, and is interrupted on his journey by "a woman afflicted with hemorrhages." She bravely approaches Jesus in a crowd, despite being ritually unclean from her bleeding, and stretches out to touch his cloak. She is healed! Jesus meets her eye, confirms her faith, and continues on to resurrect the young girl.

Reading this passage, it might be easier to identify with one story — the long-suffering woman or the young, innocent girl — and to move past the other. But here they sit side by side. The girl is twelve. The woman has been suffering for twelve years. For the Gospel writers, number parallels have deep symbolic meaning.

Between the woman and the young girl, we are not one or the other. We are both. None of us had a perfect childhood, perfect families, or a perfect peer group. As we endure pain, disappointment, or unmet expectations, it can feel like a part of our childhood hopes have died. Our coping mechanisms, social adaptations, and hidden secrets can make us the "walking wounded" in some respects. Jesus wants to do more than simply staunch the bleeding. His healing hand makes dead things come alive. He awakens the dreams that are asleep. This process requires prayer, conversations with trusted community and spiritual mentors, and critical looks at difficult areas of our life. However, we can believe the words of our Lord. If we approach Jesus in faith, believing that he wants to heal and save, we, too, will hear his calming words spoken over the hurts of our life. "I say to you, arise!" "Go in peace."

Early Registration for the 2018-2019 year (without a late fee) has begun.

A friendly reminder that all students must belong to families regularly attending and registered as members of St. Mary's Cathedral. Children's faith formation is part of the sacramental life of our community. Learning about our catholic faith involves practicing our catholic faith as well.

Cathedral Trees

It is with sadness that we inform you that the beautiful cherry trees that once adorned the sidewalk leading to the cathedral (off Carlton St.) have been removed. After treating them over the past couple years for their disease, they were no longer showing signs of hope.

Thank you, Fr. Marcelino, for the past 2 and a half years - we were blessed to have you!

Thank you, also, to all who attended the farewell reception for Fr. Marcelino last Sunday. A special thank you to the donors, sponsors and helpers who were generous with their time, talent and treasure. A fun time was had by all.

Catch a glimpse of the event on our Instagram account and hear the touching blessing given by the parish community @cathedralwpg

As the weather continues to be beautiful and parishioners are enjoying outdoor living, please consider our cathedral schedule to attend Mass given the different times offered.

The Eucharist is essential to our spiritual health and your presence is important and valued!

Also, please consider signing up for Pre-Authorized giving for your weekly financial offerings — this is our church home and we are all responsible for its wellbeing.

May we continue to grow in God's way.
