Mission Statement

As the Cathedral parish of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, we welcome and serve all people on their faith journey as we promote and celebrate the Catholic faith in the living Christ. Through excellent liturgy, we are inspired to embrace social justice and diversity, and foster personal growth. In an atmosphere of acceptance, we encourage hopefulness, love and transformation.

Lawyers don't always fare so well in popular culture. Even the television shows that exalt some aspects of the legal profession (like Law & Order or The Good Wife) also have some lawyers that are less than noble in both their personal and professional lives. Even in Shakespeare's time this ambivalence toward lawyers was evident in Henry VI, Part 2 when Dick the butcher, one of the rebels, proposes to kill all the lawyers since by their arguments they can have a man condemned as easily as freed. Still, every day people turn to lawyers seeking their help with a host of problems. The love-hate relationship continues.

In the Gospel this weekend, the scholar of the law is looking for the way to life. His question is sincere. He is trying to understand what is required of him. He can quote the law, indeed, probably even lives by it. But the question of who is a neighbor is one of legal precision. The interpretation of the Mosaic law based the fact of one being a neighbor on a covenantal relationship. Those who worshipped the one God were considered as one's neighbor. In the time of Jesus this narrow interpretation was being reconsidered. Some religious scholars suggested that a more universal application was needed, while others held to the tradition that Samaritans, foreigners, and those outside the law were not neighbors under the law. Jesus makes his position clear, although by coming at it from the other direction. It is the Samaritan who shows himself to be a neighbor.

Maybe that is where the argument lies for us today. We cannot define with legal precision who is going to be a neighbor to us. All we can do is decide to be neighborly toward others, that is, to show them the very love with which we love ourselves. And then rely on God's mercy that someone will be there for us as a neighbor in our time of need.

Stewardship Message for Sunday July 14, 2013

The Virtue of Gratitude and Stewardship

“The greatest saint in the world is not he who prays most or fasts most; it is not he who gives most alms, or is most eminent in temperance, chastity or justice. It is he who is most thankful to God. This is the perfection of all virtues” – William Law. We do well to give thanks to God always and everywhere. The truth is that everything that we possess, or are able to accomplish is only because of our good and gracious God. The Holy Spirit, and an attitude of gratitude, is what move the Christian steward and disciple into action.

To The Parishioners of St. Mary’s Cathedral

To quote St. Paul, “ I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord...” (1Timothy 1:12) for all of you and for the opportunity to have served you as Rector of the Cathedral these last few years. I hope to see you all again from time to time - so I won’t say “goodbye” as if for good. I do want to thank you now however, as I finish my service as Rector - for your many kindnesses to me in so many ways; for your faithfulness to the parish, for your wonderful participation in the liturgy, for your joyfulness in sharing the faith with family and others, for your participation in the many ministries and above all for your love of God that makes all these other gifts of service possible. I pray you may continue in this way of the Lord. I have been deeply blessed and graced by God in being with you. I will treasure you always in my heart and my prayer. Thank you, too, for the many expressions of your kindness and love, especially in these last weeks of “farewells.”

And now - let us welcome Father Geoffrey Angeles as the new Rector and assure him of support. He will be a good servant of the Lord in your midst, I know!

God Bless you all! “God bless us everyone!”

Rev. Msgr. D. Ward Jamieson
