Mission Statement

As the Cathedral parish of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, we welcome and serve all people on their faith journey as we promote and celebrate the Catholic faith in the living Christ. Through excellent liturgy, we are inspired to embrace social justice and diversity, and foster personal growth. In an atmosphere of acceptance, we encourage hopefulness, love and transformation.

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In any household with more than one child, parents have to deal with sibling rivalry. The more benign forms find expression in simple competition, in which one child strives to do better than another in contests or sports. At other times, the rivalry shows itself in a negative light, offering up comments on who's not doing what, whether that is schoolwork or household chores. The supposedly aggrieved child has a heightened sense of justice, often proclaiming that the other child seems to get away with doing less.

It almost seems as though this is what is playing out in the Gospel story today between Martha and Mary. Martha wants Jesus to be the arbiter of the dispute, much as if she would be running to Mom or Dad. Mary seems to have found the sweet spot, sitting at the Teacher's feet. Plenty of German-inspired stained glass windows show exactly that, portraying Mary with an almost beatific quality to her face, while Martha stands in the background with a rather sour grimace. Jesus sits between them as though he is the referee between the two feuding sisters.

Since the time of Augustine the story of Martha and Mary has often been interpreted as a commentary on the difference between the active and contemplative life-with the contemplative winning out. It's hard to imagine that a Gospel such as Luke's, so filled with stories of compassion and assistance, would profess that view. It is Luke's Gospel that includes the story of the good Samaritan, the classic example of active love of neighbor. Maybe a better way for us to understand the story of Martha and Mary is this: Mary's example is a reminder that we must clearly hear what Jesus is teaching. We cannot just run about acting as we always have. Rather, we need to take his teaching to heart, and in that way ensure that our actions are based on his commands.

*Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me."
 Luke 10:38-40*

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is a joy to be appointed as your new Rector. So that you may become more familiar with who I am, let me take this opportunity to introduce myself.

I am a Canadian-born Filipino, the eldest of two sons. My parents Rudy and Perlie, immigrated to Winnipeg in the early 1970s where they met each other and were married here at St. Mary's Cathedral. I have a younger brother Ian, and have most recently gained a wonderful sister-in-law, Sabrina.

After five years of formation at St. Joseph Seminary (Edmonton, AB) and one year of internship at Good Shepherd Parish (Portage La Prairie) I was ordained to the ministerial priesthood on May 30th, 2008. I began my first appointment as Parochial Vicar at St. John Cantius Parish for two years, after which I ventured towards rural Manitoba to begin my first Pastorate in the Westman Deanery, serving the communities of Sacred Heart Parish (Viriden), and Parioisse St. Jean (Grande Clairière).

Some of you may remember when I was hired at St. Mary's Cathedral in 1999 as organist/pianist, and later as choir director. Since then, I have continued my involvement in liturgical music, both within the Archdiocese, such as directing the Archdiocesan Choir, and beyond. In November of 2007, I was commissioned by the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops to compose a National Mass setting for the new translation of the Roman Missal. In May of 2009 I was appointed by the CCCB to sit on the National Council for Liturgical Music where I continue to represent Western Canada. I have facilitated workshops throughout most of Western Canada and Ontario and I offer a quarterly publication of liturgical music selections in the "Prairie Messenger" in partnership with Bernadette Gasslein. I am a summer graduate student at the University of Notre Dame (Indiana) where I am currently completing a Masters degree in Liturgical Theology.

As I begin this exciting new appointment, I want to thank you for your faith and commitment to the parish community. I pray, that we may grow together in God's loving way, so that God's reign may truly be known in all aspects of our lives.

In Christ,
Fr. Geoffrey Angeles

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

The RCIA program is a process designed for people who wish to become members of the Catholic Church. Candidates may be individuals who have not been baptized, or were baptized in another Christian church.

The RCIA program begins in each year in September and continues until the Rites of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) are received at the Easter Vigil, the Saturday evening Mass held before Easter Sunday. Weekly meetings are usually held on Sunday.

To Enroll for this program please leave your name, phone number and email at the Parish Office:204-947-0294, or fill out the form and drop it off at the Parish Office or in the Sunday Offering Basket.

You will be contacted for an interview early in September.
