"Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord..."

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. — Mk 6:34

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD

Now what?"

It's a difficult thing to hear, isn't it? The train comes late, a child unexpectedly cries, and the latest public policy debate flares up in the news. Life throws us curveballs, and we have no choice but to adapt. Jesus and the Apostles find themselves in that exact situation in today's Gospel.

The Apostles have returned from their two-by-two missionary journey. As Jesus hears all of their stories, he knows they need time to recover and refresh. "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Their wilderness retreat is short-lived, however, as eager crowds discover their location. Jesus is well aware of the needs of his disciples. Still, as he looks out at the crowd, "His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd." The rest break is over. "He began to teach them many things."

For those of us who have experienced a taste of much-needed relaxation only to have it taken away abruptly, perhaps we surmise what the Apostles might have been feeling in that moment. But Jesus isn't being inconsiderate of the Apostles' needs. He offers them — and us — a lived lesson. St. John Paul II wrote, "The whole of Christ's life was a continual teaching: his silences, his miracles, his gestures, his prayer, his love for people, his special affection for the little and the poor, his acceptance of the total sacrifice on the Cross for the redemption of the world" (On Catechesis in Our Time, 9). In Jesus' choice to teach, we see all of these things: sacrificial love, concern for the marginalized, and priority of people's needs over personal preference. These aren't abstract ideals. They're lived realities as we strive to live and love like Jesus. When a new obstacle confronts you in your life, how do you respond?

Welcome Fr. Peter

We welcome Rev. Fr. Peter Nemcek who has been appointed to serve as Parochial Vicar on our Pastoral Team here at St. Mary's Cathedral. Fr. Peter is currently the vocations director for the Archdiocese of Winnipeg and will continue his duties in that capacity while serving in this new appointment in our community. We are sure that Fr. Peter's presence will be a wonderful addition to the life of our parish community.

Sisters of Charity Day Camp: Tuesday, July 10

Thank you to all who helped in making our annual Summer day Camp with the mother Teresa Sisters of Charity a success. This year, we hosted 70 children—among whom are either refugee or new immigrants living in our downtown core. To see photos of the event, visit our event blog on the cathedral website.

CAMP 2018

Catechism Year 2018-2019

Early Registration for the 2018-2019 year (without a late fee) has begun.

A friendly reminder that all students must belong to families regularly attending and registered as members of St. Mary's Cathedral. Children's faith formation is part of the sacramental life of our community. Learning about our catholic faith involves practicing our catholic faith as well. For registration forms, come to the office during office hours or to the hospitality centre (Hargrave entrance) between weekend Masses. Fees with forms can be submitted together with your weekly offering during the collection. For any questions, please contact Nicholas at the office by phone or email.

Membership Registration

If you regularly attend St. Mary's please register as a member. Parish membership helps us build parish identity and family.

Forms can be found online at www.stmaryscathedralwpg.ca/membership or at the office or in the Hospitality Centre.

Away for Summer Vacation?

Don't forget about your parish community. As the weather continues to be beautiful and parishioners are enjoying outdoor living, please consider our cathedral schedule to attend Mass given the different times offered. The Eucharist is essential to our spiritual health and your presence is important and valued! Also, please consider signing up for Pre-Authorized giving for your weekly financial offerings — this is our church home and we are all responsible for its wellbeing. May we continue to grow in God's way.

Baptisms and Weddings

If you are planning to get married, please refer to our website for the details. A reminder that 6 months of active membership at St. Mary's is a requirement as marriage is a vocation of the Church.

If you are planning a baptism you must first call the office and fill out the appropriate forms. If you are not a registered member, there is a 3 month waiting period. Dates for baptisms are not available by request but follow the schedule of St. Mary's cathedral. Depending upon the circumstances you may need to speak with the parish Rector, Fr. Angeles.
