"Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" Incredible. Unbelievable. Miraculous. What a sight to behold. If only we had been there with those disciples! What a help it would be to our wavering faith to see Jesus calm the waves. Could we ever doubt again that he was Lord of all creation after a moment like that?

Well ... maybe. These remarkable moments do have a way of losing their luster from a distance. In retrospect, we too often second-guess such episodes of spiritual clarity: "Perhaps it was just a coincidence. Maybe the storm was about to end anyway. How can we know for sure?" In fact, it appears as though the disciples themselves were already struggling with forgetting the power of the signs they had previously seen. This is why Jesus reprimands them because of their fear, "Do you not yet have faith?"

Why does Jesus expect them to have faith already? Because, as Mark's Gospel records for us, Jesus had already cured countless people, cast out demons for all to see, and even had a divine voice announce at his baptism, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased," (1:11). The miracles were not in short supply. The problem was believing in the miracles even after they were over.

Let's not fall prey to the same problem, thirsting for other miracles than the ones we have already experienced in our own lives, subtle though they may have been. Let's not make our faith dependent upon the appearance of the next sign from God. No. Let us join the psalmist in maintaining an attitude of belief, as we thank the Lord for "his wondrous deeds to the children of men."

Morning Prayer at the Cathedral

On July 8, 2015 at 8 am, there will be a service of morning prayer as part of the Winnipeg Organ Festival hosted by the Royal Canadian College of Organists.

Let There Be light, Let There Be Music - TALENT SHOW

THANK YOU to all who attended, performed, organized, served and prayed for the success of this first-time event. The evening was a success indeed! This joy-filled event raised $ 5,180.00 towards our 'Let There Be Light' campaign. More importantly, however, the evening fostered new relationships in our community and showcased newly-discovered gifts and talents.

Do you feel called to accompany others on their spiritual journey? Do friends or colleagues seek you out to listen to them? You may be called to the ministry of spiritual direction. St. Benedict's Retreat and Conference Centre offers a two year program of training for women and men who want to discern this call and become prepared to serve others in this way. Call Sister Mary Coswin at 204-339-1705 ext.229 for more information. Application is open to those who have had spiritual direction themselves. Deadline for application June 20th.

THANK YOU to the St. Mary's Knights of Columbus for their generous donation of $500 towards the 'Let There Be Light' campaign. The Music Ministry would also like to thank the Knights of Columbus for its continuous support and generosity for donating the proceeds of the last Pancake Breakfast to "Let There Be Light Campaign" and for contributing some food items to the Music Ministry's BBQ-Potluck Dinner. The Knights of Columbus are a small but committed organization in our parish - new members are always welcome!
