12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Self-discovery is part of every person's life. To a greater or lesser extent, individuals learn about themselves as they go through various stages of maturing. Adolescence is an early period of self-understanding, when teenagers begin individualizing themselves, sometimes rebelling against parental values, sometimes integrating them into their own lives. College years and young adulthood are another period when men and women begin to uncover more about their own place in the world. A traumatic experience in middle age-job loss, divorce, serious illness-may also provoke a time of self-reflection, during which a person may question what the meaning of his or her own life is.

The story in Luke's Gospel this weekend (like many of the Gospel stories) can be read in several different ways. Is the human nature of Jesus seeking an understanding of who he is, uncovering the mystery of his divine nature during his time of prayer? Or is the story written by the disciples many years later in their own quest to understand who Jesus was even as he walked among them? Or is this an account of the inspirational action of the Holy Spirit, giving Peter the insight to speak accurately about who Jesus is? Or is this a teaching of Luke the Gospel writer, putting the death and resurrection of Jesus in a context that unites the day-to-day experience of a believer with the final act of Jesus? Or is it all of these, and more, at one and the same time? Biblical scholars can give us a lot on which to reflect.

As the Gospel points out, for believers, the quest of self-discovery includes an identification with Christ. As he says in the Gospel, a follower "must deny himself and take up his cross daily... whoever loses his life for my sake will save it" (Luke 9:23-24). Here is the true path to self-discovery for the Christian. It is revealed in our connection to the death and resurrection of Christ.

Stewardship Message for Sunday June 23, 2013

The Virtue of Humility and Stewardship

Humility does not mean that you think less of yourself; that serves no purpose. God wants you to use your gifts well, for your own needs, and at least as well for the good of others. Acknowledging that life itself, and all the good things in life, are God's gift, is an expression of humility. Knowing that God gives you your talents and abilities for the greater good, as well as your own needs, should give you a 'healthy humility' and the God-grounded confidence to boldly and generously share your gifts in ways that give glory to Him.

SHARING GOD'S GIFTS 2013

Cathedral budget for 2013 - $54,140
Amount collected as at May 31, 2013 - $14983

As of May 31, 2013, our commitment to Sharing God's Gifts has a shortfall to budget of $7,599.00. If this trend continues for the balance of the year we will experience an overall shortfall of approximately $18,000. The Cathedral is under a commitment to pay the entire budget figure of $54,140 to the Archdiocese of Winnipeg. This means that any shortfall will have to be taken from the operating expenses and on-going programs. To avoid this problem, the monthly offering for Sharing God's Gifts needs to average at least $5,600 per month for the remaining 7 months of 2013.

Sharing God's Gifts is an initiative of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, and the proceeds fund various programs such as Youth Ministry, Catholic Education, Seminarians, and assistance to build the priests pension to ensure the clergy retire with dignity. Please be generous with your contributions to meet this commitment, as the work being done is very important within the Archdiocese. For further information please visit this web address:
