Have you ever heard that the Gospel is radical? In our times, we hear that word and think of fundamentalists, radical activists, or extremists - people who go beyond limits to achieve their goals and may not consider themselves bound by normal propriety or morality. Their ethos might not be so different from James and John in today's Gospel. "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" This isn't so foreign to some of the stories of the Old Testament. Yet Jesus rebukes them. He won't be exacting in the way his contemporaries expected. There will be no radical rain down of fire and brimstone. Jesus is radical in another way: the call to discipleship.

"The Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks back to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." These can be difficult passages to read. These are not normal things to hear! It can be easy for many of us to avoid the exacting nature of the Gospel, which might not be what we think it is. James and John wanted to set the bar high for others on the outside and to punish those who didn't meet that standard. Jesus sets the bar high for his disciples, those who say they want to follow him. He may be using some hyperbole, but it's only to send a clear message. This is a radical call, one that has a cost. To truly put God and others first, before ourselves, will involve sacrifice. How is Jesus asking you to be radical today?

Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head." And to another he said, "Follow me." Archbishop Gagnon publishes historic document, 'Disciples on the Way'

Pentecost Sunday marked another milestone in the history of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg. On June 9, 2019, Archbishop Richard Gagnon promulgated his post-synodal pastoral letter entitled, Disciples on the Way. The document provides a clear history of the Archdiocese's two-year Synod process (2016-2018), the fruits that have resulted from it, and the basic principles of implementation that will unfold over the next five years. Disciples on the Way is an official proclamation coming out of this historic Synod (the Archdiocese's first and only), and we are all encouraged to read, pray, and have conversations about it in our communities as we carefully reflect on its teachings.

Copies of Disciples on the Way can be found at the entrances of the church as well as the cathedral office. For an electronic copy go to www.archwinnipeg.ca

First Communion

Discovery: A Comic Lament

Discovery: A Comic Lament, starring Ted Swartz and Michelle Milne, is a play about the Doctrine of Discovery, the legal framework that justified theft of land and oppression of Indigenous Peoples. Using humor and drama, Discovery invites audiences to learn about the Doctrine of Discovery, to lament its ongoing legacy, and to connect with Indigenous-led justice efforts. It has been affirmed by those who have seen it, both settler and Indigenous people.

July 25th, 2019, at 7:30pm, in the Canadian Mennonite University Chapel. Tickets for the play can be purchased at <https://www.eventbrite.ca/>

Living Stewardship: How to be Grateful, Generous and in the Moment.

How do we actually live out that call in our daily lives? Fr. Darrin Gurr, Pastor of St. Gianna's Parish takes a holistic approach to this question. Copies available at the hospitality centre.
