"God is always more." Have you ever heard that? If we truly believe that He is infinite, then this statement is worth exploring. Today, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit in power upon the early Church. But Pentecost wasn't the first time the disciples received the Holy Spirit. The Gospel actually occurs chronologically before Pentecost. Soon after the Resurrection, Jesus already "came and stood in their [the disciples'] midst... he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'"

God is always more. Sometimes we might think the grace of God as one and done. God might break through in people's lives, but it's a one-time event on a retreat or preceding a dramatic conversion of life. But there's always more to come. Even today's Gospel isn't the first time the breath of God stirred. In Genesis, it's God's breath that stirs life into Adam in the garden. Jesus breathes on the Apostles, giving them the Holy Spirit in the quiet and silence. Later, that breath will stir into a "driving wind", and the Spirit will descend with flame...not unlike Moses on Mount Sinai.

God is always more. He has spoken throughout salvation history, and continues to speak into our lives through His Church and through the Holy Spirit alive in our hearts. This Pentecost Sunday, let us come before Him with expectant hearts! Like the disciples in the Gospel and first reading, let us await what "more" God will do.

This week we remember the following names on our Tree of Life:

- June 11 William Lillies Jr.
- Joseph Kolodka
- June 12 Aquilina Z. Fabricante
- June 13 Mary Ruczak
- Rosario M. Tungol
- June 14 Rosaire Gagnon
- June 15 John Weselowski
- Ricardo Pido Cabayao

"Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord..."

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." — Jn 20:21-23

Our Financial Responsibility to the Archdiocese

Each year every parish in the Archdiocese of Winnipeg is given a financial target to raise in support of the work and operations of the Archdiocese.

These funds support Archdiocesan services, various programs and other aspects that serve our local church community.

In the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, parishes support the ministry of the Archdiocesan church in two ways:

Sharing God's Gifts and the Archdiocesan Assessment.

Sharing God's Gifts:

Every parish is allotted a certain percentage to raise based on the parish's offertory collection. Proceeds raised go towards the funding of Pastoral ministry throughout the Archdiocese including Vocations, Youth Ministry, Catechetics, and Outreach to our Missions, to name a few.

For St. Mary's Cathedral, the target amount for 2019 is: $51,350.

The Archdiocesan Assessment:

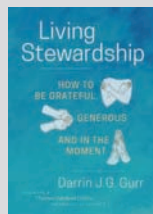

Every parish is allotted a certain percentage to be assessed based on the parish's offertory collection. The amount determined to every parish goes towards the administration and operations of the Archdiocesan offices.

For St. Mary's Cathedral, the target amount for 2019 is: $82,970

Living Stewardship:

How to be Grateful, Generous and in the Moment.

How do we actually live out that call in our daily lives? Fr. Darrin Gurr, Pastor of St. Gianna's Parish takes a holistic approach to this question. It will be sold in the hospitality room for $15.
