4th Sunday of Lent

Last October forecasts were predicting higher pork prices in the spring and summer, based on a larger than normal sow slaughter in the fall. Market analysts viewed the trend with some trepidation. They saw the greater than average weekly slaughter as a sign of some herd liquidation, a result attributed to the higher feed prices brought about by last summer's drought. With pork producers unwilling to foot the bill for the increased cost of feeding, there was a surge in animals brought to market. While consumers realized an initial benefit with lower prices in the fall and winter, the lack of feeder animals in the production pipeline means higher prices at the grocery store this spring. The Easter ham may be a little more expensive this year.

This weekend's Gospel is so familiar that most of us could probably relay the events the parable recounts by heart. The younger son ends up hiring himself out to a hog farmer, a particularly despicable trade in the cultural context of Jesus' time, since swine were considered unclean according to Jewish law. In his suffering the young man longed to eat the food that he was feeding to the pigs. He finally came to his senses, realizing that he needed to change his life. His profligate spending and former life of excess had brought him to a low point from which he needed to recover.

The economic situation of the past few years might serve as a reminder to all of us that life is more than a healthy bank account. A year ago spring, it looked like farmers would have a bumper crop. Then the drought came, affecting food prices and a lot more. Even when we think we have it all, we are still dependent. In the Gospel, the younger son turned back to his father in his need. The older son needed to turn back to his father because he had forgotten that he was always there.

Parishioners of St. Mary's Cathedral

If you subscribe to personalized envelopes, we would appreciate that you use your pre-printed envelopes that you receive in the mail every 3 months. We have parishioners that on a weekly basis do not use their pre-printed envelopes. St. Mary's pays for these envelopes, which cost thousands of dollars per year.

Also, a reminder to all who use the envelopes from the back of the church for your donations, please make sure you print clearly all the information, including both of your names, address, postal code and if you are a new parishioner, a phone number. Often there is more than one person with the same name in our parish and if only your name is on the envelope we have no way of knowing which e.g. John Smith it is. This is where errors can occur to your donation for the year.

If you have changes to your personal information, please notify the church as soon as possible so we can update our records. If you have any questions, please call the office at (204)947-0294.

Your co-operation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Nathanael 2013.....the Next Generation

Nathanael 2013 is a new adult faith formation process designed to deepen one's Christian Catholic identity and the call to contemporary discipleship.
