2nd Sunday of Lent

This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him. When they heard this divine declaration, Peter, James, and John fell on the ground, trembling in fear. The gleaming vision of Jesus miraculously transfigured before them, and the appearance of the two prophets who had been dead for ages, did not knock them over. Rather, the clear voice of God that followed this apparition struck fear into their hearts. The first part of the heavenly announcement certainly confirmed what they had just seen the unveiled glory of Jesus' divinity. But these words included another element, a command from on high: 'Listen to him.' Perhaps part of the fear that shook these men was the solemn realization that Christ's divinity demands more than our respect. It demands our response.

Knowing that Jesus is God is only part one. We are also called to follow him, by heeding his teachings and imitating his example. Lent is a special time to examine just how well we are 'listening' to Christ. It is a season to uncover the areas where we are deaf to his word, or at least where we are pretending not to hear it. To this end, we have the Lenten exercises of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. First and foremost, in prayer we literally pause to listen. We do our best to quiet ourselves and ask God to speak to us in the depths of our hearts. By fasting, we learn to silence the demands of those physical cravings that too often take first priority in our lives. And through the practice of giving alms, we train ourselves to hear the voice of the least of these, in whom Christ himself is present. This Lent, may we respond wholeheartedly to God's command to listen to his Son.

March 16 - — 2nd Sunday of Lent

Stewardship as a way of life has its beginning in a personal encounter with God. It does not take a mountain-top experience like that of the disciples in today's Gospel for our hearts and minds to be transformed. We need only to see the glory of God in all that we are able to accomplish, and in all that we are blessed to possess. Seeing all of life as God's glorious and generous gift is what inspires us to be good stewards of all our gifts.
