This Sunday's

Gospel is known as the "priestly prayer" of Jesus. The entire passage is Jesus entrusting us to the Father. "When I was with them I protected them ... I guarded them," Jesus says. He asks his Father, "Keep them in your name." In this prayer of Jesus, we see the paradoxical tension of our life as Christians in the world. He anticipates struggle for the believer. He describes it in strong words, words that could even appear frightening to the believer. "I gave them your word, and the world hated them." Not only that, but with our eyes on eternal life, we "do not belong to the world." And yet in the midst of those realities, Jesus doesn't take us out of the world. On the contrary, "as you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world."

Christians live in this tension daily. The call of Jesus often defies nice, neat categories. We uphold justice as virtue yet are invited to love our enemies. We offer gifts and generous hospitality to others while being reminded of the value of temperance. We are called to teach the truth of right and wrong without losing sight of the beam in our own eye. It can be difficult to find the balance in our own lives, and a Church that preaches moral perfection can easily fall under scrutiny when it falls short.

In the midst of these complications, Jesus offers a message of hope. He is well aware of the contradictions into which he sends us, and his Father will equip us accordingly.

"Consecrate them in truth." "Keep them from the evil one." Jesus does not abandon us to the tensions of our time but remains near at hand by the grace alive in his Church.

Parish Office Hours

Our parish office hours on Monday, May 14 will be 10am - 2pm.

A Journey Through Grief ...

"Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted." Mathew 5:4

Sometimes it is hard to find solace in these words of Jesus when we are experiencing profound grief at the loss of a loved one. Scripture, Catholic tradition and sacramental life speak stories of loss and sorrow; hope and resurrection. In these stories we not only find our own journey but a rich resource for reflection as we live the reality of our own personal grief.

The community of St Mary's Cathedral will be offering a 4 part series on grief for parishioners who have experienced the death of a loved one.

When: Wednesdays: May 30, June 6, 13 & 20
Time: 6:30 - 8:30 pm

Pre-registration is required as there are only 8 spaces. Please call the Parish Office (204) 947-0294 and leave your name. We will get back to you re attendance.

We welcome

Margo Benedito and Dominic Jude Velasco who were baptized on Sunday, May 6.
