Remembered on the Tree of Life

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

"And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." Today's Gospel shows us that Jesus wants to do more than satisfy our needs. He wants to give us an experience of fullness and abundance. He not only miraculously fed the crowd of thousands; he also provided enough to make a mountain of leftovers. More than they needed, more than they ever expected. That's what Jesus gave.

And it's what he continues to give us every time we receive the Eucharist. This too is a miraculous meal. Like the multiplication of "five loaves and two fish," Jesus turns something small--bread and wine--into something abundant and overflowing: his body, blood, soul, and divinity.

Through this sacrament we experience the gift of union with Jesus and the resulting graces that come from encountering him. Just like the crowds gathered that day in a deserted place, we come to Jesus with our emptiness--our needs, our weaknesses, our fears--and he fills us up until we too are "satisfied."

The prayer after Communion on today's feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ reminds us that what we experience at Mass is a foretaste of that ultimate satisfaction that we will experience in heaven: "Grant, O Lord, we pray, that we may delight for all eternity in that share in your divine life, which is foreshadowed in the present age by our reception of your precious Body and Blood." Receiving the Lord in the Eucharist is a momentous miracle and an earthly glimpse into heaven. May today's celebration help remind us to be ever grateful for this most glorious gift.

The Twelve approached him and said, "Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here." He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves." - Lk 9:12b-13a

Year of Mercy—Guest Presentations

In our Year of Mercy, St. Paul the Apostle Parish is hosting a guest speaker series each month on various life issues and challenges in order to tear down our prejudices, judgements, and discriminations. Come and hear the stories of people who have experienced struggle and pain as well as mercy and hope in their lives. All are welcome.

Upcoming presentations:

Thursday June 9 @ 7:00pm Addictions & Recovery

THANK YOU to all the parents and catechists who helped organize the reception for our First Communion celebration!

KAIROS will be holding giant Blanket Exercises across Canada in honour of the 1st anniversary of the release of the TRC's Calls to Action for Reconciliation. Here in Winnipeg, our mass Blanket Exercise will be on Saturday, June 4th from 10:00 a.m. until noon in front of the Legislative building, 450 Broadway avenue. The Blanket Exercise is an experiential activity that teaches the historical relationship of Canada with the Indigenous people of this land. All are welcome! Bring a friend or two! Light refreshments provided.
