33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are nearing the end of the Atlantic hurricane season. There are many people in this country who pay little heed to this designation, which typically runs from June 1 to November 30 each year.

On the other hand, there are large segments of the populace for whom hurricane season is a time to follow the weather broadcasts more closely. For those who live in the affected areas of the country, being prepared for a hurricane's arrival is part of life. Long-range preparation includes things like having an evacuation plan, knowing where important documents are, and having some emergency cash. When a storm is close at hand, vigilance heightens as people board up windows, stockpile supplies, and stay tuned to weather forecasts. Local and state governments execute their disaster preparedness plans to ensure the safety of citizens.

In the Gospel this weekend, Jesus encounters some people who were enamored of all the beauty of the Temple. For them, this was a sign of a certain permanence and blessing rendered by God. In Luke's Gospel, written after the Jerusalem Temple had been destroyed, the Gospel writer has Jesus describing the city's doom and the Temple's destruction. Just like the citizens of hurricane areas who pay close attention to weather reports when there is an approaching storm, the people in the Gospel ask Jesus for the sign that what he describes will happen.

Like folks who live in a hurricane zone, we need to be prepared. Our long-range preparation includes having an evacuation plan. The evacuation plan isn't about gathering up belongings and pulling out before the storm hits. The evacuation plan for a Christian is being prepared to leave this life when the time comes. That means that during our life on earth we have stayed close to God by being faithful to him and trying to live the kind of life Christ has taught us by loving our neighbor. Are you ready to go?

Sunday November 17 - 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

In the Collect for today's Mass, we pray that we might experience the constant joy of being devoted to God, the one who gives us all that is good. He provides the "good" things like cherished relationships, talented minds and bodies, and, abundant possessions and wealth. One catalyst for our devotion comes through recognizing that God is the source of these gifts. Gratitude prompts the desire to share our gifts and thus experience what we ask for in the Collect today, the "full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy". Stewardship is to walk the road of joy.

$54,140.00 2013 Goal

$35,133.09 Donated To Date

Dear sisters and brothers,

I wish to express my sincerest gratitude for the generosity you have shown over the past two weekends.

In October, we collected $ 7,691. towards the Archdiocesan Campaign, Sharing God's Gifts, for the continued ministries within our archdiocese. As such, we are beginning to approach our community goal as we have $ 19,007. left to raise before the end of this year. Let us pray that we may achieve our goal.

Last weekend, in our efforts to support those in the Philippines who continue to suffer the aftermath of the tragic earthquake, we managed to collect $ 4,341. Once again, we see how the efforts of many can make a huge difference both locally and globally.

Thank you, once again, for your generous, Christian response that enables Christ's mission through us to continue and thrive!

Peace,
 Fr. Geoffrey Angeles
