If you brought your child to the restroom during the Liturgy of the Word, you might walk away with one of two interpretations of Jesus as King. The first and second readings are bold and victorious. We see Christ coming on the clouds for the final judgment of heaven and earth. The Gospel sets a very different tone. Jesus is under arrest and facing death before Pontius Pilate. We know how this story will end. So if Christ is King, what does it mean? Is he a glorious conqueror or a suffering servant? "My kingdom does not belong to this world." Here is the heart of Jesus' reign. He is a king — and his "subjects" are alive and well on earth — but, ultimately, Jesus' kingdom transcends our earthly concepts of power. Jesus faced down the temptation of a solely earthly kingship. At the close of his 40 days in the desert, the devil offered him the kingdoms of the world. Jesus only had to sacrifice his heavenly values and worship Satan. The same temptations to distort the kingship of Christ are present to us today. Jesus' invitation also endures. "Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." It is important for us to belong to the full truth of Christ's kingdom. First, our own hearts must be transformed. Our own rebellions in favor of selfishness and against holiness must be conquered by God's grace. Second, we must work to transform the world as best we can in our own corner of it. Like Jesus shows us by his life and death, this doesn't mean domination. It means service, sacrifice, respect, and love. Our lives must "testify to the truth" of Jesus Christ, who lays down his life for his people. That is the true beauty of Christ the King!

This week we remember the following names on our Tree of Life:

November 28 - Marciano M. Matriano
November 30 - Escolastica V. Benavidez
December 1 - Domingo Naval
 - Dionisio Enriquez

"Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord..."

So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth.

Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." — Jn 18:37

Living Waters Columbarium

This Sunday we welcomed Monique Gauthier, Columbarium Representative from Living Waters Columbarium located in St Gianna Beretta Molla Church.

The columbarium is a response to the church's clarion call to honour the cremated remains of our beloved dead. In his Instruction on the Care of Cremated Remains, Pope Francis states, "By burying the bodies of the faithful, the Church confirms her faith in the resurrection of the body, and intends to show the great dignity of the human body as an integral part of the human person whose body forms part of their identity."

Living Waters Columbarium is a response to this instruction, providing a sacred place where our beloved dead can be remembered and entrusted into the mercy of God and the communion of the Saints.

For more information on entombment, contact Monique Gauthier at Living Waters Columbarium.

Vessel of Remembrance

It is our custom every year at St. Mary's cathedral to remember our beloved dead throughout the month of November. At the front of the church you will find our Vessel of Remembrance where you can include the names of deceased family members and friends. These names will be prayed for daily.

"Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord... and let perpetual light shine upon them."
