Coin collectors participate in their hobby for a variety of reasons. Some enjoy the beauty of finely sculptured miniature works of art. Others like the historical nature of the coins. Still other collectors get involved in the hobby because they see it as a financial investment. And finally, some collectors are basically accumulators, gathering in vast quantities of coins hoping to find a gem no matter what its condition. In wanting to show off their collection, coin collectors are always posed with an immediate problem: a coin has a front and a back. Most of the time it is the front that has the stellar image, often a bust of some historic individual. The back is usually plain, but sometimes, the reverse is actually the more interesting side.

In the Gospel this weekend Jesus presents two commandments, which like a coin, are two sides of the same item. We are called to love God with all our heart, all our soul, all our mind, and all our strength. And, we are called to love our neighbor as ourselves. As the scribe indicates in his response to Jesus, it is no longer sacrifices or burnt offerings that God wants, but fulfillment of the commandment to love.

When one loves God, one must love all that God has created, which includes our neighbor. For how can one truly love God but not love what God has made? And when one loves a neighbor, one must love God because God is the one who made us all. These two commandments of love are inseparable in the very same way that you cannot have only a one-sided coin. Even if the other side were blank, it would still be there. And so it is with the two commandments of love. They go hand in hand as one.

Stewardship - November 04- 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Think of someone you love with all your heart, mind, soul and strength. To develop such a deep love the relationship must come first when prioritizing your schedule. This is a stewardship of time question. How do you steward the gift of each 24 hour day? Do you set aside a generous portion of each day to develop your relationship with God? After all, it is God who gave you the day in the first place.

Mission Sunday for Evangelization of the Nations

This national collection was officially Oct 21, 2012. Many of you have already donated with the pink envelopes found in your personalized envelope packets. If you missed this special collection, there are white Mission Sunday envelopes at the back doors of the church. We all share in the mission of the Church and its missionary work. Please give generously and help our parish and diocese do this important work.

Lectors Needed!

Are you interested in becoming a lector? We are looking for people who can read clearly, project their voices, and have a love of the Scripture. If that is you, please call the parish office at 204-947-0294 and leave your name for Mary. Training will be provided.

Before the 12:10 pm weekday Mass,
