*Remembered on the Tree of LifeThe Dedication of the Lateran Basilica

"When he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe." Jesus predicted his resurrection in today's Gospel. But it wasn't until after the disciples witnessed the miraculous event that they realized what he had been talking about. At the time, Jesus' words seemed mysterious, even confusing. Those who heard him understandably thought his reference to "this temple" was about the Jewish house of worship. But it wasn't. He was talking about his body. This only became clear later.

As the saying goes, "hindsight is twenty-twenty." How often do we find ourselves in the midst of a situation that doesn't make sense at the time? We question the "meaning" of a sickness, a lost job, a betrayal, or a disappointment. But then, after time has passed, we can begin to see it from another angle. In fact, many times we begin to see how good came out of these tough situations. St. Paul says, "We know that all things work for good for those who love God," (Rom 8:28).

Sometimes it's hard to trust in God's promises, especially when his plan seems mysterious or confusing. But just as the disciples learned that Jesus knew what he was talking about, we can believe that too. He tells us that he is "the way and the truth and the life" (John 14:6). Although the way may seem indirect, Jesus' perspective is bigger than ours. He knows how to lead us to the fullness of life, in this world and the next. The path may not be one that we would choose. Even Jesus had to journey through the cross before his resurrection-the temple of his body was destroyed before it was rebuilt. But looking back, it's obvious that God's plans really do work out for the best.

Remembrance Day: Lest we forget

A day set aside to Honour Sacrifice

On the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, Canadians are asked to pause for two minutes of silence in memory of the thousands of men and women who sacrificed their lives in military service. In this silence we remember the country's fallen soldiers from the First World War, the Second World War, the Korean War, the Afghanistan conflict and all peacekeeping missions.

*Loving Father,
have mercy on your people,
and open our hearts to peace and love.
reward all who have died for their country, and grant Canada and all nations may continue to work for peace and justice.
bless us in our service,
and help us to follow Jesus Christ,
who is our savior and our Lord for ever and ever
Amen*

Remembrance Day Mass
Tuesday, November 11, 2014 at 10:00am
The parish office will be closed.

*"What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." But he was speaking about the temple of his Body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this.
John 2:18b-19, 21-22b*
