Mission Statement

As the Cathedral parish of the Archdiocese of Winnipeg, we welcome and serve all people on their faith journey as we promote and celebrate the Catholic faith in the living Christ. Through excellent liturgy, we are inspired to embrace social justice and diversity, and foster personal growth. In an atmosphere of acceptance, we encourage hopefulness, love and transformation.

27th Sunday in Ordinary

Quarterly earnings reports for many publicly traded companies have either just been released or will be in the next week or so. Since every company reports them on its own schedule after the end of the quarter, it is a rolling release that investors will examine in the days to come. How well a company does will affect its share price on the stock exchange, and the compensation that is eventually determined by the board of directors for a company's leaders. Company policies or union contracts often determine how the rest of the workforce down the line get to share in any benefits of a positive earnings report.

The words of Jesus in the Gospel may seem a bit harsh this week. He tells his apostles that they could describe themselves as unprofitable servants who have only done what they were obliged to do. It does not seem to be a very flattering picture of what it means to be a Christian. In Jesus' day a servant performed such menial tasks that it is hard for us to even imagine them today. We hear Jesus describing the master as telling the servant to prepare something for him to eat. Such actions required much more than popping something in a microwave. Meal preparation involved hard work like grinding grain, catching fish, plucking chickens, or gathering produce. It even meant hauling jars of water from the communal well. And the next day it was the same all over again.

We are fortunate to live in the era that we do. While our daily work may not always seem as exciting as it could be, we are spared much of the drudgery of the past. For us, being a servant is an entirely different dimension. We don't go down to the lake or river in hopes of catching some food for the master. Instead, our servitude is that of being attentive to our neighbor. Our earnings report will shine if we do that!

Lectors
Group 4 will read next weekend, Oct 12 & Oct 13, 2013.

And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you."
 Luke 17:5-6

 Luke 17:11-19

Sunday October 6th - 27th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Jesus places two expectations on our discipleship and stewardship in today's Gospel. The first is that our acts of serving and giving are to be done without looking for thanks or recognition. Next Jesus calls us to go beyond obligation and duty when referring to the Apostles as "worthless slaves" for having done "only what they ought to have done!" God is much more interested in why we do what we do rather than what we do. When we serve and give out of love for God and one another we move from obligation and duty to what Jesus is looking for.

From the Rector's desk:

As announced last weekend, I am very pleased to welcome two new, though familiar, additions to our pastoral team. Sr. Rose Mary Sander, who has served the cathedral community in the past, will be officially working part-time in the areas of adult faith development and pastoral counseling. Mr. Bill Wachko is assuming the position of business manager, bringing with him many years of experience and expertise.

To echo what I said last weekend, I am confident that our cathedral community can only be strengthened in its future growth with the presence of these two gifted resources on our pastoral staff.

In Christ,
 Fr. Geoffrey Angeles
