24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." Jesus knew these self-righteous religious leaders were complaining. And he knew they needed to learn a lesson. So, in addition to giving a lived example of welcoming the company of "tax collectors and sinners," Jesus also directly taught the skeptics about the importance of welcoming those who have been lost. Today's Gospel gives a powerhouse lineup of three parables that all teach a similar message: rejoice over the lost sheep, rejoice over the lost coin, and rejoice over the return of the lost son.

The theme can be summarized in the simple directive: rejoice don't reject. When someone who isn't part of the "fold" appears in church, this is cause for rejoicing! It should not be cause for gossip, sideways glances, or nervous whispers about what to do or say. Rather a genuine smile and word of welcome would be in order at the very least, and a heartfelt invitation to join the community would be totally appropriate.

Too often we become complacent about our Christian company. We get used to seeing the same people every Sunday and forget about the "lost" men and women who are outside the bounds of our comfort zone. Jesus gives us the image of an active shepherd who goes "after the lost one until he finds it," and a diligent widow who will "sweep the house, searching carefully" until she finds her coin. He tells us of a father who "ran to his son, embraced and kissed him," in spite of the separation they had faced. We too are called to take initiative in seeking out those who are lost, and to rejoice heartily when they finally do come back home.

It is with a heavy heart that we bid a bittersweet farewell to two of our staff members at St. Mary's Cathedral.

Bill Wachko has served on our cathedral staff as Operations Business Manager for the past three years. As a long-standing, committed parishioner, our faith community has been blessed to have been guided by his expertise and skills. Though Bill will be missed at the office, we wish him all the best as he re-enters into a well-deserved retirement!

Pat Stepanuik has served on our cathedral staff as Secretary for over 20 years. Also a long-standing, committed parishioner, Pat has been the initial voice, face and presence for all who either call or visit the parish office throughout the working week. Her dedication as Secretary for the cathedral has demonstrated a true vocation that exemplifies the meaning of hospitality towards all, which, is essential to our identity as Christians in the world today! For the wonderful gift that Pat has been to the cathedral community, we are truly blessed and grateful. We wish Pat all the very best as she also enters into a very well-deserved retirement!

We welcome Eva Dunlao who now assumes the position of Operations Business Manager and Nicholas Barker who now assumes the position of Secretary.
