"Eternal rest, grant unto them, O Lord..."

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it." — Mk 8:34-35

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

We know the signs of defeat: slumped shoulders, downcast eyes, a chastened demeanor. For those of us sincerely trying to follow Jesus, defeat is inevitable. We commit to spending more time with our kids, but that one project still looms. We resolve to be a good person, but our selfishness strikes again. It can be easy to get discouraged over our moral failures. Today's Gospel is a small, intriguing look at this process in the life of St. Peter.

First, Jesus' questions get the Apostles thinking about his true identity. This results in a confession of faith from Peter: "You are the Christ." Eager faith characterizes Peter's relationship with Jesus. First to follow, first to leap out of the boat, and, we know, first to deny. It's the latter tendency that manifests itself later in the Gospel. When Jesus predicts the Passion, "Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him." Jesus' rebuke in turn is stinging. While Peter's caution to Jesus is in private, Jesus intentionally turns back to the others as he declares, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." Like Peter, we rarely get it right all the time. Peter understood that Jesus was the Messiah, but he had a false concept of what that Messiah would accomplish. Jesus wants to make sure the rest of the disciples don't follow down the wrong road. The Christian life is a difficult one, as Jesus later tells the crowds. "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself." Yet the mercy of God is abundant. If we renew our trust and our efforts after a fall, every defeat is transformed into redemptive grace. "Whoever loses his life for my sake ... will save it."

To my young friends: "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." (Jn 6:68) Do I go to Christ for answers? My young friends we live in a world that often gives us shallow answers or no answers at all. It might even stifle the deep questions of our heart. Why am I here? What's the meaning of life? What's God's plan for my life? Who am I? Jesus came so that we might have life and have it to the full (cf. Jn 10:10). Jesus desires a life of holiness, happiness for you and for me because He loves us. Do I believe this? Friends I invite you take these questions to prayer to ask Jesus about it. St. Augustine said: My heart is restless until it rests in you my God. If you wish to explore these questions in a communal setting look into the bulletin in upcoming weeks for more information or simply approach Fr. Geoffrey or me expressing your interest. God bless, Fr. Peter
