WELCOME TO OUR PARISH

BENVENUTI ALLA NOSTRA PARROCCHIA

CHI è Gesù, con quale autorità compie gesti e miracoli? Questi interrogativi risuonavano tra i fedeli riuniti nella sinagoga di Cafarnao (Vangelo). La gente era stupita dal suo insegnamento.

Percepivano in Lui qualcosa di diverso dalla solita predicazione. Mentre si chiedevano chi veramente fosse, ecco che il nemico si fa autogol. Uno spirito immondo proclama a voce alta che Gesù è il Santo di Dio. Accanto all'insegnamento si ha il primo scontro di Gesù con il male. Lo stupore per la sua dottrina si unisce a quello per i suoi gesti. Chi può mai comandare a uno spirito immondo e scacciarlo? La possessione diabolica mette in luce il contrasto netto tra Gesù e Satana, che incarna ogni male. L'interrogativo è valido ancora oggi per noi. Gesù stravolge le nostre sicurezze, le nostre certezze. Si serve di tutto, anche del male per aprirci gli occhi e invitarci ad accogliere la sua amicizia. Dobbiamo ascoltare la sua voce, perché egli è mandato da Dio, come aveva annunciato il Deuteronomio (I Lettura). Gli fa eco l'apostolo Paolo (II Lettura) quando invita a vivere per il Signore per trovare la vera felicità.

Did You Know...?

Pope Francis visited the Philippines between January 15 and 19.

The Philippines is the largest Catholic community in Asia. Roman Catholics represent 81% of the 99 million population.

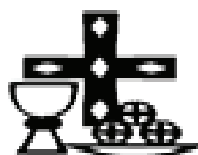

On Sunday, January 18, Pope Francis celebrated an open-air Mass at Manila's Rizal Park. More than 6 million people participated in Mass or lined the papal route to the park.

It is believed that this is the largest papal event, not only in Manila, but in the history of popes. Pope John Paul II was welcomed by about 5 million people in 1995.

Traditionally, popes fly Alitalia when they leave Rome. Their return flight is provided by the flag carrier of the country they are visiting.

Hence, in this trip to Asia, the pope flew Alitalia from Rome to Colombo (Sri Lanka), then Sri Lankan Airlines from Colombo to Manila. His return flight to Rome was provided by a Philippine Airlines aircraft.
