WELCOME TO OUR PARISH

BENVENUTI ALLA NOSTRA PARROCCHIA

CELEBRANDO ogni Domenica il mistero pasquale rischiamo di abituarci ad esso e di non coglierne l'importanza per la nostra vita. La liturgia, pur celebrando sempre e solo Cristo morto e risorto, ci offre ogni domenica un colore nuovo di questo mistero. Oggi splende quello della gloria della croce. L'alleanza vagheggiata dal profeta (I Lettura), un'alleanza di perdono per ogni uomo, si realizza nella passione di Cristo, il chicco di grano che muore per produrre il frutto del perdono. La sua croce sembra un fallimento, invece realizza per tutti la nuova ed eterna alleanza di salvezza (Vangelo). Il Padre conferma che solo questa è la gloria che egli dona e chiede: «L'ho glorificato e lo glorificherò...», dichiara al mondo la voce dal cielo, proprio quando il Figlio annuncia l'imminenza della sua passione. Essere dov'è il nostro Signore vuol dire seguirlo sulla via della croce, ma con la certezza della gloria della Risurrezione. Vuol dire, come lui, imparare l'obbedienza da quello che soffriamo (II Lettura) per vincere con lui l'avversario della vera vita, Satana, il principe di questo mondo. Elide Siviero

Did You Know...?

The book of the Prophet Jeremiah, from which today's first reading is taken, was written by two scribes, Baruch and Seraiah, sons of Neriah, who wrote down the words of God, spoken through the Prophet.

Jeremiah called by God at an early age, prophesized the destruction of Jerusalem by forces from the "North" and the exile of the Israelites, unless they repented from their sinful ways.

These "news" were not what the king and dignitaries wanted to hear and Jeremiah was thrown in prison.

The prophecy was fulfilled and, in 587 BC, Jerusalem was conquered by the Babylonian army and the people were forced into exile.

Just as Jeremiah had prophesized, the exile lasted 70 years, after which the Israelites were sent back to Jerusalem. Jeremiah also prophesized a new covenant God would make with His people (today's first reading) and more importantly, he foretold the coming of Jesus Christ (Jeremiah 33:15-17).

Michelangelo has portrayed the prophet Jeremiah on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican, along with the other six major prophets of the Old Testament times.

Working wonders for people locally and around the world...

We have always tried to expose our deaf children to both communities. As their parents, we have talked to them and tried to answer their questions when they saw someone using sign language and they had basic sign language books. Then one day our oldest son, Ethan, said he would like to learn sign language. We discovered Silent Voice's Sign Language Summer camp and enrolled him in the program. The following year Gavin joined his older brother and they both want to go again. We also put our name in for the Family Communication program because we wanted to support our children. These opportunities increased the boys' awareness of the deaf community and also helped them gain respect for different ways of communication. They enjoyed both experiences as did we. We all hope to take part in the Family program again. Last year more than 600 deaf children received support through Silent Voice's Sign Language Summer Camps.

Next ShareLife Sunday – April 12, 2015
Please give generously. You can work wonders!

There will be an Altar servers meeting on March 28th at 10:00 a.m. in the church, to review the Holy Week Masses.
