A Thanksgiving Prayer

Heavenly Creator,

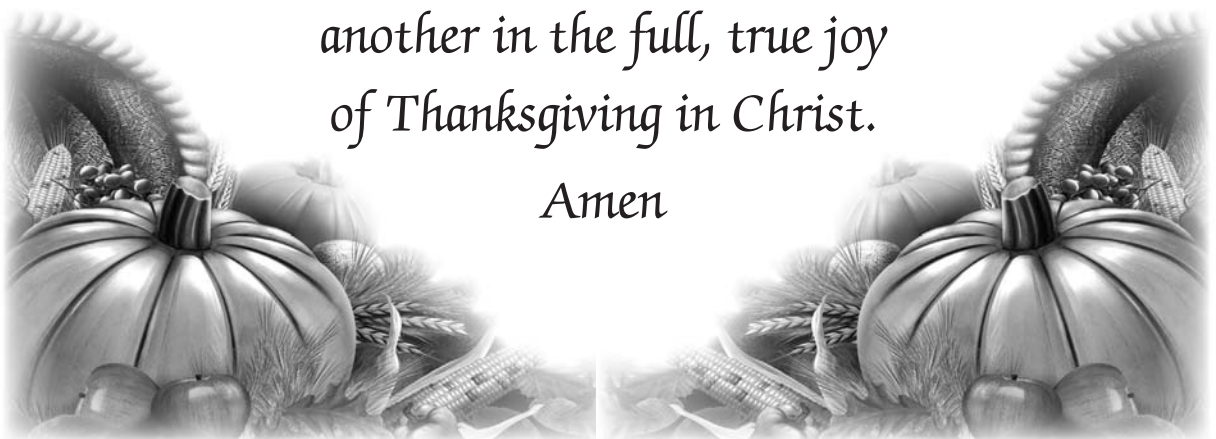

In this season of gratitude and abundance,
we give You thanks for our many blessings
as we pray for all who struggle with hunger and want.

Be with them in the dark of night,
when all hope seems lost.

Keep their faith strong as they await relief.

And let Your goodness flow through our hearts and hands as we reach out to one another in the full, true joy of Thanksgiving in Christ.

Amen

Thanksgiving

I often mention that the word Eucharist means thanksgiving. Thus, we attend Mass to give God thanks for all the blessings received. Of course, we don't just wait until the Thanksgiving weekend to thank God, we give God thanks daily and especially on the Day of the Lord, which is Sunday. St. Paul tells us in the 1st chapter of Romans beginning at verse 20 that one of the triggers for the collapse of humankind was that they refused to give God thanks. Writing to the church at Colossae, St. Paul challenged the Christians there to give God thanks. He said that we should be "overflowing with thankfulness" Colossians 2:7. God's great kindness to us deserves our gratitude and a thankful heart. Everything that's good in life comes from God. Let us give thanks. Happy Thanksgiving to all faithful parishioners. I am grateful for all the parishioners who have resumed Mass attendance on Sunday, the Day of the Lord following the pandemic. Now that masks are no longer mandatory on air travel, let us hope that those remaining parishioners, still not attending Mass, will have trust in God who healed all who came to him with illnesses. No one gets sick in God's house because He is the great Physician. Also, we obey the 3rd commandment: "Remember the sabbath to keep it holy" which means we attend Mass on Sunday, according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Mass attendance on a weekday is not a substitute for our Sunday obligation.

First Communion Catechist

The grade 2 class has a new catechist who is well known to many. Emily Iskierski recently retired from a teaching position at Holy Ghost School, so she is an excellent fit for the First Communion class. Emily attends Mass, almost on a daily basis, is a regular in the adoration chapel and is a dedicated Christian. Thank you Emily for accepting the position of catechist and may God bless you as you teach the First Communion class.

Sharing God's Gifts Some of you will have already received a letter from our Archbishop Gagnon requesting participation in our annual Archdiocesan Appeal. As he mentioned in his letter, Sharing God's Gifts goes towards Home Missions, First Nations Ministries, Adult Lay Formation, Priests' Pension Plan, Prison Ministry, Catechism, St. Paul's College Chaplaincy, Social Justice programs, Vocations & Seminarians, Youth and Young Adult Ministry. Our parish target is $77,085 and we are far from that target. We still need $50,799. The Appeal goes until November 20. You still have time to make your gift to the Archdiocese. To those who have already contributed and who continue to contribute, I want to thank you on behalf of the Archdiocese. For those who have not given a gift, I want to encourage you, as good stewards of the gifts which you have received from the Lord to be generous in helping out. God bless you as you give.

Father Dominic

Introduction To Penitential Rite: Jesus is always present to heal us. With confidence, we ask forgiveness for not being as grateful as we should be.

2 Kings 5:14-17 In the first reading, a foreigner becomes a model of faith for God's holy people. His greatest joy is serving the Lord.

2 Timothy 2:8-13 In the second reading, Paul sums up the gospel for Timothy and for us. Jesus died for us and was raised from the dead. He is always faithful. We can lose salvation only by denying him.

Luke 17:11-19 In the Gospel, a Samaritan healed of leprosy returns to Jesus to praise God out of gratitude for such grace while nine others who were healed show no gratitude at all.
