APRIL 3, 2022 — 5th SUNDAY of LENT/C
5ª Domenica di Quaresima/C — 3 APRILE, 2022

From The Administrators Desk . . .

Throughout the Gospels, the Pharisees continually try to test Jesus, as they do in today's Gospel. These tests are often set as traps, where the Pharisees only see two possible answers. No matter how Jesus answers, they believe that he will advocate breaking either the Jewish or the Roman law. It's a seemingly "no-win" situation: and yet, Jesus continually finds a way to answer these questions that defies the expectations of the Pharisees.

Today's Gospel is no different. The Pharisees pose the question about whether or not the woman should be stoned because they are aware that Roman law prohibited the Jewish leaders from using the death penalty. As a side note, This is why they had to appeal to Pontius Pilate to have Jesus crucified. However, the Jewish law clearly states that adulterers are to be put to death. If Jesus answers that she should be put to death, the Pharisees could report Jesus to the Romans for breaking their law. If, on the other hand, he says that she should not be stoned, he runs the risk of angering the Pharisees further, and driving away his followers, who expect him to follow the law faithfully.

Jesus seems to be trapped: but as he does so many other times, he finds a way to respond that cuts through the trap. He simply responds: "let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Jesus knows full well that he is the only one without sin in the crowd and is the only one who could cast the first stone. And yet he doesn't. Jesus, knowing the law, also knows that the first stones were to be thrown by the witnesses, and not by a third party. Jesus recognizes that the appeal of the Pharisees to his decision is little more than a cheap publicity stunt. Instead, He waits until the crowd has left, and then he finally speaks to the woman.

Jesus, in speaking to the woman, does not declare her innocent, or tell her that she has done nothing wrong. He simply states that he does not condemn her and instructs her to "go and sin no more." In doing so, Jesus shows us the way of mercy, and reminds us of the importance of not judging others. As we enter into the last two weeks of Lent, commonly referred to as Paschiontide, we are reminded of the depths of God's mercy for us, shown to us through Christ's passion, death, and resurrection. May we always strive to follow this example, and always seek to show greater mercy to all those we meet.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

Jesus Youth is a missionary movement at the service of the church that had its beginnings in India and has grown to be active in over 25 countries. The group is led by trained young adults from the Jesus Youth movement in our area.

They meet at Assumption Parish every 1st and 3rd Sunday of the month after the 7:30pm Mass in Rosary Hall. Come and share in the praise and worship music, games, discussion, sharing and prayer with other young people of faith.

THE CHURCH IS LISTENING. COME JOIN THE CONVERSATION. YOUR INPUT IS IMPORTANT

You are personally invited to consider attending a listening session and inviting others to share your story of journeying with the Church and to learn from the diversity of experiences of others. This listening process will provide insights for our family of parishes. It will stimulate reflection on the different ways our family of parishes can be intentional about deepening communion, expanding participation and focusing on mission.

Listening Sessions

Sunday, April 3rd at Holy Name of Mary from 4-6pm
Saturday, April 9th at St. Alphonsus from 1-3pm

Listening Session registration information can be found on our website www.windsorheritageparishes.ca/synod

Questions For the Listening Sessions

Here are the questions we will be responding to in the listening sessions.

QUESTION ONE:

What have been your experiences of journeying together with the Catholic Church? What joys did these experiences bring? What difficulties or obstacles have you encountered?

QUESTION TWO:

As we journey together, what are your hopes and dreams for the church?
