From the Administrator's Desk.....

There's an old saying that "the bigger they are, the harder they fall." In other words, the more important or powerful a person is, the more difficult it is for them when they lose their power or importance. This is especially true when the power and importance that a person has only serves to inflate their ego, and causes them to see themselves as more important than they really are.

It's easy to think of Hollywood celebrities when we think about this kind of egoism, but sadly, we in the Church are not immune. It is this false sense of power and authority that has led many in the church to take advantage of the poor and vulnerable. Each time these types of revelations come to light, the Church is wounded: especially when others in the Church try to dismiss or minimize the claims to save face and protect their own egos.

No one likes to be publicly humiliated, but sadly, this type of humiliation comes when we fail to recognize our proper place in the world, and in God's economy of salvation. When we make ourselves out to be bigger than we are, we inevitably will be knocked down a few rungs, and will be forced to suffer the humiliation of "falling from grace." This is why Jesus' words about humility in today's Gospel are so important. To practice the virtue of humility helps us to recognize our place in the world. It helps us to avoid the temptation to make ourselves out to be more important than we really are. The virtue of humility helps us to get outside of ourselves, and to recognize that we do not live in our own little world. It helps us to become more aware of the needs of others around us, and to respond to those needs in generosity and kindness.

It is this generosity and kindness that Jesus asks us for in our daily lives. We do not serve others to call attention to ourselves, or to make ourselves look great. St. Teresa of Calcutta was a master of practicing this type of generosity and humility. Even though she attracted a large following by her way of life, it was never about her. It was always about the poor, and her call to be of service to them. If all of us could live by the example of this saintly woman, imagine the difference we could make in the world!

As we journey throughout this week, I invite you to spend some time in prayer, asking God to help you to practice the virtue of humility more in your own life, and to recognize that everything we do, we do for the greater glory of God.
Sincerely in Christ, Fr. Steven Huber, CSB

For the fall of 2022 will open on September 12th on our parish websites.

LIVING AS A SYNODAL CHURCH

Our synod listening session theme for this week is "Grow the church with a special focus on youth." Many participants expressed concern about the lack of youth attendance and involvement. Windsor Heritage Catholic Family of Parishes has a Coordinator of Youth Ministry, Jessica Jarvis, who is working with all the communities to minister to our young people and their families. Youth and Family Ministry is here to help children and youth be leaders in their own faith journey and to help parents as well. This coming year, we will do this by providing programs, such as in-person sacramental preparation classes for First Reconciliation/ First Communion and Confirmation; as well as Family Formation Events such as Ice Cream Socials, Trunk or Treat Fest and Intergenerational dinners. Volunteers are always needed for the above programs. If you feel a call to help out, please contact the Coordinator of Youth Minister at (519) 253-2493 Ext 227 or email her at jjarvis@dol.ca

Many were concerned about family members and friends who are distanced from the church. Here are some things we can do: pray daily for their return; encourage not criticize; invite them to attend with you for key family celebrations; help them to see why your belief in Jesus and receiving Eucharist is important to you; post links to prayers, videos on Jesus and the bible, Q & A about Catholicism on social media.

Assumption University is pleased to announce the offering of a new undergraduate course, for credit or audit, entitled, The Holocaust (RELS 2045). - Work through the emotional upheaval of separation and divorce.
- Find personal healing and hope.
- Discover a deeper understanding of God's love for you.
- Gain wisdom and comfort from experts and others who share your experiences.
- Navigate new concerns like custody, court hearings, and finances.

The program runs from September 21st to December 7th, 2022, at 7pm at Assumption's Rosary Hall. Contact Rose Marie Ruston at cdsg.assumption@gmail.com or call 519-967-1782.

Are you interested in becoming a Roman Catholic? Are you an adult seeking to be baptized? If so, then the RCIA or OCIA (Rite [or Order] of Christian Initiation for Adults) is the process you will want to hear more about.

Do you have a child age 7 years or older who is not yet baptized? Then the Order of Christian Initiation for Youth may be the process through which your family will most benefit.

Are you interested in sharing your Catholic faith with children, teens or adults who are seeking the sacraments of initiation? We are seeking dedicated disciples to serve as catechists or sponsors in these Christian Initiation processes.

Please contact Jean at jbeneteau@dol.ca regarding any interest or questions you may have regarding these sacramental formation processes.
