TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Joshua 24:1-18; Ps. 33; Ephesians 5:21-32; John 6:60-69

As we continue in these weeks to focus on the gift of the Eucharist, consider the congregation at liturgy on a given Sunday in a parish church. Here is a woman who comes early and enters by the side door that offers a ramp for her invalid husband's wheelchair. There is the father of four whose wife was recently diagnosed with cancer. The couple in back is mourning the death of their newborn, and the mother on the aisle is weeping for her son who was arrested in a drug raid....It is well to remember that while we attend the liturgy to praise God, we are there also to support one another by our prayers, our presence, and our care. Together we are the Body of Christ, a suffering body that can rise to the challenges of life through the ministry of its members. We are Eucharist!

PARISH NEWS

We are entertaining the possibility of beginning two new activities through the parish; however, because we have never attempted such activities, we would like to gauge your interest.

Do you have an interest in taking a ballroom-style dance class? And/or . . . do you have an interest in art journaling? In both cases, no experience would be necessary as we have instructors who have offered their services to parishioners. If there is an interest, please contact Tom Dula at tdula@assumptionu.ca, or call him at 519-973-7033 x3369. This is open to all parishioners. Dates, costs and other details will be communicated to the parish if we determine there is enough interest.

Today's readings invite us to a meal...but this is no ordinary meal and no ordinary invitation. In words which challenge us as they did those first disciples, Jesus offers himself to us not merely as dinner companion, but as our very food and drink.

Here we have the Incarnation in a nutshell, Jesus transforms bread and wine, the ordinary stuff of human sustenance, into his own body and blood which he offers as our spiritual food and drink. The level of intimacy with God to which we are called every time we gather around the Eucharistic table is an awesome gift which we should never take for granted, but welcome with a humble and grateful heart.

May we echo Peter's affirmation of faith..... "You have the words of eternal life"..... as we respond to the invitation to "taste and see that the Lord is good."

The Saint Vincent de Paul is in need of restocking their cupboards. The summer time is always a little more busy and the economy is still sluggish. Therefore the demands are heavier.

Our area has also grown with the closing of Blessed Sacrament and St. Patrick's Church's. Some of the food items they are looking for are tuna, spaghetti and sauce, peanut butter, Kraft dinner, ravioli, canned vegetables, canned juices, and other non-perishable items that you think might be healthy. Also if you are interested There is always a need for volunteers to assist with this wonderful program.

Eucharistic Adoration at Assumption

“Devotion to the Eucharist is the most noble, because it has God as its object; it is the most profitable for salvation, because it gives us the Author of Grace.” St. Pius X.

Rosary Chapel remains open during these summer months for visitors to Eucharistic Adoration. Committed adorers are reminded to complete and return a commitment form available in the church or Rosary Chapel. New adorers are always welcome. And anyone with questions about adoration at the parish or how to participate, please contact Sebastian Martincic at 226.347.0670 or martincics@yahoo.ca
