Fourth Sunday of Advent
December 23, 2012

Micah 5:2-5; Psalm 99; Hebrews 10:5-10; Luke 1:39-45

God's ways are so unspectacular. We would expect the Lord God to give convincing demonstration of might and majesty. Instead, God's Son entered upon human history as every human being must, a newborn infant. Today's readings show us the lowly surroundings and ordinary people who were central to God's design. In spite of the fact that Bethlehem was David's royal city, it was an insignificant town. Yet for the prophet Micah, it is birthplace of the shepherd-king who will begin his rule of peace over a faithful few. In Luke's gospel, so sensitive to the lowly and the inspiration of the Spirit, we see the young woman alluded to by Micah exchange greetings with her older relative. Elizabeth's infant John dances in her womb as she calls Mary blessed; unlike Elizabeth's husband, Mary had responded to God with perfect faith. The letter to the Hebrews shows how fully Jesus was his mother's son. His ready obedience accomplishes God's design for the redemption of the world. Jesus carries out the will of his Father from the wood of the crib to the wood of the cross.
