Peace on Earth

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

December 29, 2013

Sirach 3:2-14; Ps. 128; Colossians 3:12-21; Matthew 2:1—23

When I consider the plight of all refugees and migrant peoples, I cannot help but think of how even the Holy Family of Nazareth experienced initial rejection: Mary "gave birth to her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling cloths, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn" (Lk 2:7).

Jesus, Mary and Joseph knew what it meant to leave their own country and become migrants: threatened by Herod's lust for power, they were forced to take flight and seek refuge in Egypt (cf. Mt 2:13-14). But the maternal heart of Mary and the compassionate heart of Joseph, the Protector of the Holy Family, never doubted that God would always be with them. Through their intercession, may that same firm certainty dwell in the heart of every migrant and refugee.

—Pope Francis

God, bless to me the new day,
Never vouchsafed to me before;
It is to bless thine own presence
Thou hast given me this time, O God.
Bless thou to me mine eye,
May mine eye bless all it sees;
I will bless my neighbor,
May my neighbor bless me.
God give me a clean heart,
Let me not from sight of thine eye;
Bless to me my children, spouse and friends,
And bless to me my means and my cattle!

—Scottish New Year Blessing

Parking Lot

Sometimes, when there are events at the University on Sundays or Saturday evenings, you will have noticed a bottleneck at the entrance to the parking lot, and you can't get into the parking lot or onto the street as quickly as you would like.

We appreciate your patience in these circumstances. We could simply close the lot to all but parishioners, but we would lose considerable income which is vital for the restoration of the church. We count on your gentleness with each other and the parking attendants.

Similarly, you may occasionally be questioned upon entering the lot, especially if the attendant is new on the job.

Please accord them every courtesy. Theirs is not an easy job.
