Second Sunday of Advent – December 4th 2011
Isaiah 40.1-5, 9-11; 2 Peter 3.8-14; Mark 1.1-8

In today's scripture readings there is a dual dynamic: it is God who brings about the new beginnings, but this cannot happen without human response. We must acknowledge and let go all that stands in the way of our openness to God's coming. The first and second readings invite us into the desert to do this. Desert space is always ambivalent: it is both a place of terror and emptiness and, at the same time, a hollowed-out space of grace. From the desert comes a voice of hope, bringing the good news that God's love never wavers; but when we fall short, with God's grace we can always begin again.

From the Pastor's Desk

Please remember: the sister of Fr. George Beaune, Marie Malone, who passed away last week. This is the third sister of Fr. George to die since the summer.

Parish Marian Celebration: As I mentioned before, we will combine the Feasts of the Assumption and Holy Name of Mary and mark these festivals on Thursday, Dec. 8 with a special Mass at Assumption Church at 7 pm with a reception following at the Freed-Orman Centre.

Christmas Ornaments: Beginning today, you will find a limited edition of Assumption Church Christmas ornaments. These are available for a $20 donation. The monies collected from this sale will go to the tuition of a Palestinian Catholic student, Raouf Khoury, who is attending St. Anne's High School. Raouf, whose family I have known for a number of years, is enrolled as a foreign student at St. Anne's High School. The out-of-country tuition is $11,000. A pasta dinner, sponsored by our Knights of Columbus in late January will also be held to raise funds for this project.

The "Giving Tree" As usual, our parish has responded in such a wonderful way to this traditional appeal. Your kindness and generosity will mean so much to families in this Season.

St. Vincent de Paul (Poor and Needy) and AHTE envelopes. Just a reminder that all envelopes marked for each are given directly to them and they issue the tax receipts—not the parish. Thought you need to know this.

Speaking of St. Vincent de Paul, more and more calls are coming to them for assistance. So, I would like to invite any and all parishioners who might feel called to this important ministry to contact the rectory and we will forward the names to them. Remember the Lord's own statement: "I was hungry and you gave me food". And thanks again for all those who continue to bring non-perishables to the church (at Assumption, the grey can at the entrance and at HNM at the entrance as well). You are so incredibly generous....

CAMPUS MINISTRY NEWS

Blessings during Exams

Now that all regular campus ministry events have come to an end for the Fall Semester, we would like to assure all students and faculty of our prayers as their focus turns to final papers and exams. May God grant you all wisdom, perseverance and peace.

We welcome Fr. Tom Rosica, CSB to Windsor!

We would like to welcome Fr. Thomas Rosica, CSB back to Windsor. On December 1st, Fr. Rosica began his term as President of Assumption University. Fr. Rosica, who will continue to serve as CEO of Salt + Light Television in Toronto, will be in Windsor on a regular basis but will continue to reside in Toronto. When he was first ordained, he was appointed to St. John the Baptist Church in Amherstburg. Please pray for him and for the Basilian community here in Windsor.

RCIA continues through Dec. 20th.

The Catholicism Project screening and RCIA continues through Dec. 20th before breaking for the Christmas holidays. It is never too late to come, so feel free to join us!
