The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time—February 3rd, 2019

From the Pastors Desk...

If you've ever attended a wedding, chances are good that you heard this weekend's second reading proclaimed. Paul's passage on love from the First Letter to the Corinthians is one of the most popular readings there is, and it's a beautiful way to wrap up our homily series we're calling the "Secrets of Every Happy Family". There is so much grace that is needed to truly love... and so much grace we receive, I think, when we love as God would have us do.

Think about the words Paul writes: "Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. ... It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things." As nice as those words sound, they can be a bit theoretical. It's easy for me to feel good about myself when I see them, and think, "Sure. I'm patient and kind and not envious. I'm not arrogant or rude. I believe, hope, and endure. I'm doing pretty good." But when I get concrete about things, I can squirm a bit. Think for a minute about translating Paul this way: Love is putting up with somebody even when they just don't get it! Love is having a good word to say to your next-door-neighbour even when their visitor blocked your driveway. Love is being happy when your friend got that new TV set that you've always wanted but can't afford. Love means helping out a homeless person quietly and not letting anyone else know about it. Love means you always find the good qualities in a person. Love means keeping your mouth shut when you really want to tell that person to stop talking. Love means putting up with your elder mother who has dementia and has just asked you something for the fifth time. Love means that even when your family is having difficult times, you believe in the possibility of healing and growth. Love means that your commitment to your spouse is steadfast, even when you've been let down. What a source of grace it is to love in those circumstances! And, as a Christian, that is what I am called to do; and that is what builds up families.

On a somewhat different note, next weekend Steven Huber will be ordained to the priesthood at his home parish in Albuquerque, New Mexico. As his pastor, I will be there as well, so I ask you to show a concrete example of love and acceptance to Frs. Bill Capitano and Seejo John, who will be covering the Masses. And I invite you to make plans on being at one of the Masses on February 16-17, as Fr. Steven celebrates for the first time with our parish community.

J. Maurice

Reflection for the Week

Love is patient, love is kind ...
Lord, teach me to love more deeply each day.

Today we celebrate the World Day for Consecrated Life.

The Church is invited to remember with gratitude the women and men who have dedicated their lives in service to the mission of Jesus by professing the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience. We pray for all who have made commitments to religious congregations, a secular institute, or taken private vows. We also want to pray that others will hear the call to consecrated life and respond generously."

Eucharistic Ministers Workshop

If you missed the Eucharistic Ministers' Workshop on February 2nd, you are requested to attend the 'make-up' session on Wednesday, February 6th from 6:30-9:00pm in Rooney Lounge.

All Eucharistic ministers will need instruction in some new practices. Therefore if you cannot attend on February 6th and still would like to be a Eucharistic minister, arrangements will have to be made for your training at another time. Please contact Jean Beneteau to RSVP or make arrangements. The Eucharistic ministers are mandated for this liturgical role by the Bishop, who upon receiving the names of the ministers sends a letter of mandate to the parish.

Commissioning of all of the Eucharistic ministers will take place at masses the weekend of February 23rd and 24th.

The Young Adult Café— Last Sunday we kicked off our new Café with food, refreshments, music, and an inspiring talk. A great crowd of young adults showed up. The next Café will be held here next Sunday February 10th after the 7:30 Mass.

Jesus Youth Windsor

Jesus Youth will hold the next prayer group gathering at Assumption Parish-McEwan Campus
Sunday, February 3rd, 2019.

There will be a Jesus Youth Meeting every First and Third Sunday of each Month after 7:30 pm mass.

All are welcome!
