Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time — February 12th, 2017

From The Pastors Desk...

Jews in Jesus' day tended to be good, law-abiding people. Most of us church-going Catholics would fit into the same general category. We're mostly good, and we have our weaknesses and our flaws—and we accept that our God wants us to behave in certain ways. All good Jews knew that the law came from God—and that Moses received the law from God up on a mountain. So when Jesus went up a mountain to teach, and started saying things like we hear in this weekend's gospel, "You have heard that it was said.... But I say to you....," they would have been stunned. You can almost hear them saying, "Who does this guy think he is? Is he greater than Moses, who gave the law?"

We're now in our third weekend of hearing the "sermon on the mount" from Matthew's gospel. Last week we heard that we were to be salt and light; now we're hearing some of what it means to indeed be salt and light in today's world. Jesus takes the law that all his hearers knew and brings it to the next level: It's not just about how we act. It's also about what's going on inside of us, in our minds and in our hearts—talk about tough love! So, we go from "you shall not murder" to "the one who is angry with their brother or sister will be liable to judgment" and "whoever says, 'You fool,' will be liable to the hell of fire." We go from "you shall not commit adultery" to "everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery ... in his heart." And then comes a real shocker, that may have caused Jesus' audience to laugh, because of his obvious exaggeration: "If your right eye causes you to sin, ... if your right hand causes you to sin, ... throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell." The Greek here says "the valley of Hinnon (or Gehenna)." It was the city dump, located just outside Jerusalem; fires were always burning. So, I tend to think his followers understood something more like, "Think trashy thoughts, spend time looking at trash, and you'll be thrown out with the trash." I know I hope I choose what gives me a good life, rather than what leads me to the dump.

J. Maurice

Liturgy Corner by Kevin Mannara

What is the function of the gathering song?

The gathering song serves to form us into a community, preparing us to worship as a unified body. It is the first formal act of the liturgy that we do together. Singing together helps us to become the one body that is gathered for worship. It focuses us on what we are about to do. It frequently brings to our awareness the focus of the day's celebration. Like the homily, the intercessions, and the prayers, the music is chosen to reflect the readings of the day.

When we come together to do liturgy, we cease being an "I" and become a "we," the Body of Christ united through baptism, and joined together to give thanks and praise to God in Christ's name. Today's culture leads us to be particularly individualistic, but our theology calls us to be counter-cultural, to be responsible to and for one another, to pray and sing together, not as individuals, but as a community.

FOR THE PEOPLE IN THE PEWS

"It's a Matter of Life and Death: Understanding Catholic Teaching on everyday ethical issues in healthcare"

When unexpectedly confronted with moral and ethical dilemmas related to medicine and science, we often find ourselves at a loss. This program is designed to provide a deeper understanding and guidance about the moral questions that often seem to challenge Catholic teaching on the dignity of human life.

End Of Life Issues Including Palliative Care, Euthanasia And Assisted Death

Presenters: Leo Walsh, CSB, STD
and Maria Giannotti MA, MSc.

Hosted by: Our Lady of the Assumption Parish
Location: Rosary Hall under Rosary Chapel

This weekend we celebrate World Marriage Day!

Let's take time to pray for married couples, those discerning marriage, and for our spouses. Do something special for each other this weekend to show your gratitude for your spouse and their YES to marriage!

Your goal in this Vocation of Marriage should be to get your spouse to heaven. Take time to ponder in your heart how you can do that, beginning today.

Quotable Pope Francis

Love needs truth. Just as it is based on truth, love can last overtime, overcome the ephemeral moment and stand firm to support a common path. If love has no relationship to the truth it is subject to changing feelings and does not stand the test of time.
