Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time — February 26th, 2017

From The Pastors Desk...

We've been hearing about tough love in one way or another for the past few weeks. Today we come to the end of this series, and the end of Chapter Six of Matthew's Gospel. This year, because of the timing of Lent and Easter, we won't hear Chapter Seven proclaimed at Mass. I would encourage you to take some time this week and read the entire Sermon on the Mount (Mt. 5-7). There we see just how tough it is to love as Jesus commands us to love. I hope you've failed at somehow showing love to someone whom you find tough to love—that means you've actually been trying to do so. Part of our human condition is that we never quite live up to our full potential. And part of God's condition is that he never fails to keep encouraging us, and forgiving us when we don't quite succeed. What God wants us to do is to try. Last week, Deacon Paul challenged us to pray for someone with whom we have difficulties. Have you done that? If not, then perhaps that is where God is calling you to renew your efforts.

And if we do sincerely try, I think that is all God asks of us. As this weekend's gospel passage reminds us, we don't need to worry—God will indeed take care of us, if we try to live as Jesus commands, if we try and live as his children, if we make some attempt to live the tough love that he sets before us. And if we make those attempts today, that is all God asks. As Jesus says, "So do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring worries of its own. Today's trouble is enough for today."

That is a good thought to have as we end this part of Ordinary Time, and enter Lent. Ash Wednesday is almost here. Lent is a time to take stock of where we've been and where we're heading. For me, it's an opportunity to practice some self-discipline, and to try and bring my life more into line with my beliefs. Won't you join me?

J. Maurice

Reflection for the Week

"Even should a mother forget, I will never forget you"
Is. 49:15. No matter what our lives look like right now, the Lord wants to tell us, "I will never forget you."

Quotable Pope Francis

At times like these, more than ever do we need the reasons of the heart, which alone can help us understand the mystery which embraces our loneliness.

Gathering Rite

The "gathering rite" is a name descriptive of its purpose. According to the Roman Missal, the purpose is to unify the assembled people into a community prepared to listen to God's word and to celebrate the Eucharist. We experience ourselves as a worshipping community, acknowledging that we have come together to worship the Lord. We begin to pray together to be ready to hear God's word and to receive God's sacrament as that assembly called together by God for this purpose.

Why do we begin with the sign of the cross? One of the characteristics of Catholic worship is that it is Trinitarian. That is, our prayer includes the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Notice that throughout the Mass we address our prayer to God the Father, in the name of the Son, through the power of the Holy Spirit. We set the stage for this when we begin, "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Just as we signed ourselves with the holy water when we entered, once again we reaffirm our commitment as baptized Christians to the triune God to whom we come to give thanks and praise.

Mass to Honor St. Patrick's Parish

On Friday, March 17th we will kick off our 250th Anniversary Celebrations with a mass to honor the former St. Patrick's Parish followed by a potluck dinner in the Parish Hall.

If you would like to bring something for the potluck dinner, sign-up sheets are available at the back of the Church.

There will be entertainment, a trip down memory lane with old photos and more.

This celebration will be one of three this year where we will honor the parishes that now make up Assumption Parish – St. Patrick's, Blessed Sacrament and Holy Name of Mary.

We have many events planned for this 250th year, keep watching the bulletin and website at assumption.dol.ca/250th

On Ash Wednesday, Development and Peace – Caritas Canada will launch its 50th annual Share Lent campaign, entitled Women at the Heart of Change.

Since the Organization's founding in 1967, money donated annually by Catholics during Share Lent provides essential support to the poorest populations of Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East. Today, Development and Peace supports 173 partners and 194 projects in 46 countries around the world!

You can make Share Lent a part of your family's Lenten journey by using the Solidarity Calendar, which is located at the back of the church. This year, the Share Lent collection will take place on April 2nd, which is Solidarity Sunday. If you would like to lend a hand or find out more, please contact: Marilyn Morrison at 519-253-2761 or mgm7@cogeco.ca
