Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 3, 2013

Jeremiah 1:419; Ps. 70; 1 Cor. 13:4-13; Luke 4: 21-30

We admire prophets—until they make demands on us. We are mistaken if we think we can worship the Son of God, but reject the demands of Jesus's word. Jesus's experience in his hometown of Nazareth prepared him for his destiny of rejection and death. Even now most of us prefer to turn a deaf ear to those who disturb our conscience rather than accept the message spoken by today's prophets. The first reading recounts God's choice of Jeremiah to speak his word and God's promise of strength when people reject him. Prophets must not be afraid, but turn to God in their difficulties. St. Paul's hymn to charity challenges every prophet as well as those disturbed by them.

The apostle insists that every spiritual gift, including prophecy, must be governed by agape, selfless love. Without this highest gift of all; every other gift of grace is worthless. When everything else has passed away, charity endures. The way of selfless love is beyond human achievement, but Jesus' death, which pours out on us this gift of selfless love, is present to us at every Eucharist.

LITTLE BLACK BOOKS FOR LENT

Lent, the journey to Jerusalem, will begin on Ash Wednesday, February 13, 2013. As we approach this Holy Season and to help us prepare our hearts and minds for the journey, our parish is inviting you to spend some quiet time with the Lord by purchasing "The Little Black Book" for Lent. These "six minute" reflections on the Gospels will guide you on your Lenten Journey.

To help you prepare, "the little reflections" begin on Sunday, Feb. 10, 2013 to encourage you and strengthen your spirit in preparation for Easter.

The Books will be on sale at the back of the Church after all the Masses beginning this weekend.

The cost is $2.00

Proceeds to the Restoration Fund.

Thank you for your continued support!

Well it's that time of the year again-

The tax receipts for 2012 will be mailed to your house this year.

We are in the process of sending them out within the next two weeks.

Please do not call the office asking if they have been sent out.

When you have received your Tax Receipt please call the office if there is a discrepancy or any changes we need to know. If you have not received a Tax Receipt by the second week in February please call the office. This should give Canada Post plenty of time to deliver them.
