FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

February 5th, 2012

Readings: Job 7:1-4, 6-7; 1 Cor. 9:16-19, 22-23; Mk. 1: 29-39

Job's lament about the miseries of human life could be our own, at least at times. He asks the unanswerable question: why the drudgery, monotony and suffering of life? Today's liturgy does not let us swell on this pessimistic note, for the psalm looks to the Lord who heals the broken-hearted.

The gospel shows Jesus as the great healer. In restoring people to wholeness he overcomes the powers of evil. But these healings are quickly followed by Jesus' prayer in solitude; he cannot restore to health unless he communes prayerfully with God. Nor will he limit himself to a narrow circle where he enjoys popularity. Healing is a sign of God's kingdom but it is not Jesus' main concern. No, he must preach the kingdom more widely. He wants faith, not astonishment at miracles. For Paul too, preaching is the centre of his ministry; indeed, God has chosen him for this duty. This servant of the gospel works with and for others in order to spread the Good News, which alone gives full meaning to our lives.

This past Tuesday, I travelled to London to speak with Bishop Fabbro on several pastoral issues. I was certainly grateful for his time and keen interest in Assumption Parish and we had a very good exchange on a variety of pastoral issues. I especially wanted to consult with him on a pastoral plan for the parish as we move forward anticipating the closing of Blessed Sacrament. I will be discussing this with the Pastoral Council at our meeting this week. The Bishop was very pleased to hear about our commitment not only to the spiritual needs of the west end but also the social needs as well. Hopefully by partnering even more with the St. Vincent de Paul, our schools, and neighborhood associations, we can continue not only to meet the demands but to expand our presence.

For the next several weeks, we will have guest organists who have applied for this position. Once the position is filled, we hope to look ahead towards the possibility of a parish choir. Again, I do want any parishioner who enjoys singing to think about joining a choir for the 11 am Mass. As I have said before, you do not have to have any training or choir background.....only desire and love of singingOlder children (say grade 8 and up) are encouraged as well.

RCIA and The Catholicism Project has moved!

RCIA has a new home that will facilitate discussion a little better. The time remains 7 pm, but our new location is in the studio meeting space of Assumption University at 2629 Riverside Dr. W. Signs are clearly visible in front of the two storey house and parking is around back. The garage is a free standing building apart from the house. As always, all are welcome!

CREED²: Incarnational Spirituality: The Embodiment of God.

This week, Fr. Chris speaks about the incarnation and all the implications of it. Join us at 6 pm in the Freed-Orman Centre as we discuss what it means to believe in a God who took on our flesh and shares in our joys and sorrows. All are invited. The problem with so many of our understandings of the incarnation is that they limit it to 30 years. The incarnation is still going on and it is just as real and as radically physical as when Jesus walked the earth.

Any questions about the above may be directed to Fr. Chris at cvalka@assumptionu.ca or at 519-253-3000 x3381.

CURSILLO ~ Our next monthly Ultreya will take place on Friday, February 10th at 7:30pm at St. Anthony of Padua Church in Harrow. Come and share some fellowship with other Cursillistas. If you have any questions please call Marilyn 519-253-2761

LENT - 2012 "THE LITTLE BLACK BOOK"

The Journey to Jerusalem will soon be upon us! The Season of meditation, prayer and spiritual renewal begins on Ash Wednesday, February 22, 2012. In order to prepare our hearts and minds for the journey, our parish is inviting you to spend some quiet time with the Lord by purchasing "The Little Black Book" for Lent. The cost is only $2.00 and volunteers will be available after all the Masses the weekend of February 11th and 12th and again on February 18th and 19th. These "six-minute" reflections on the Gospels will guide you on your Lenten journey. Are you ready?

MARK YOUR CALENDAR ~ PANCAKE BREAKFAST

Have breakfast with your family and friends. On Sunday February 19th after the 8:00am and 11:00am masses at Assumption and after the 9:00am mass at Holy Name of Mary. All are welcome.

CATHOLIC MEN'S FELLOWSHIP: For the past 15 years, Catholic men from Windsor and Essex County have met over breakfast to discuss how God is working (or not) in their lives. As well, a guest speaker gives each man something more to chew on from his own experiences. This month, it will be Deacon Mike Horoky. This event takes place at Ivy Rose Restaurant (2885 Howard Ave.) on Feb. 11 and the 2nd Saturday of every month at 8:30 AM. For more info, visit our website (CatholicMen.yolasite.com).
