Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 20, 2013

Isaiah 62:1-5; Ps. 95; 1 Cor. 12:4-11; John 2:1-12

God promises us a new life overflowing with joy and blessing. The language of human love and wedding celebrations symbolizes this promise well. In the first reading God is a royal bridegroom who give his bride Jerusalem a new name and royal crown. How it delights God to love us! In John's gospel the wedding at Cana is the first sign of Jesus' glory and God's presence. Jesus' mother Mary notes the embarrassing shortage of wine and intercedes with her Son. Although his hour—of crucifixion and glory—has not come, Jesus changes the water used for Jewish purifications into an enormous quantity of wine. A new year of abundant blessing replaces the old. But we are aware of Jesus' passion even in this atmosphere of festive joy, and Mary will be standing by the cross when Jesus' glory is fully revealed. The Church is blessed by the gifts of grace, services and works of every member, St. Paul says. They come from the one Spirit and have one purpose: to build up the Church. All of us share in the blessing God gives in Christ.

Assumption Parish Community Association - Catechism Program

The corner stones of our church and our faith community lie within the children and young adults of our parish. These "living stones" need nurturing through the example of other parishioners and ongoing prayers as they travel on their path of faith. There are over 90 children registered in the Assumption Parish Community Association - Catechism Program. These children are learning about their faith, preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation and still others are considering a journey to Christ through the R.C.I.A. program, (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.) This group of children and young adults represents the "living stones" of our parish and are in need of prayer. We have baskets of stones at the entrance of the church, each stone is inscribed with a name of someone in the program. Please take a stone home with you and pray for that person as they continue their journey of faith.
