3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time - January 24, 2016

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

When I was in Rome on studies, one of my classmates, a Franciscan from Brazil, told me about a survey they had done with children in that country. Brazilian children were asked to name a person for each feeling that they heard. For "happy," the number one answer was "a clown." For "sad," the number one answer was "a priest." What a tragic commentary!

One of the things that has impressed so many people about Pope Francis is his joy! He is known for his good-naturedness, his laughing with people, his accessibility, his spontaneity. I think that image is what generates the most criticism and the most praise for him: Either it's scandalous that the pope is acting so informally and is so accessible, being non-judgmental and welcoming, or it's the most amazing, Christ-like pope we've had!

I think this weekend's readings point us in the direction of the latter. They are filled with joy. We leave behind the three "epiphanies" of Jesus, and come to the beginning of Jesus' ministry, as told by Luke. Some people have called this passage Jesus' "mission statement." He quotes from the prophet Isaiah, but leaves out the line of judgment. Instead, this is what he is here to do: He is anointed to bring good news to the poor; he is sent to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free and to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour. What a mission! These are radical things—and they are causes for celebration.

The same theme is found in our first reading. When Ezra the scribe reads God's law to the people, they become sad and weep. They realize just how far from the ideal they have been living. Yet Ezra's response is surprising. He does not affirm them in their sadness, nor does he chastise them. Instead, he tells them the opposite: "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength." In other words, celebrate, and share what you have, because the Lord is full of mercy; God will give you life.

That is our challenge, and it is highlighted in this Jubilee Year of Mercy: we are to be people who, by our very presence, spread the happiness and the mercy of God. May the mark of the priest and the mark of the Christian today be happiness and mercy.

J. Maurice

SAVE THE DATE!

Sunday, February 7 Assumption Parish and the Knights of Columbus will hold a Pancake Breakfast following the 11:00 Mass. Come, Enjoy and invite a friend to join us for Mass and a Mardi Gras celebration!

Liturgy Corner

The liturgical year is made up of six seasons:

- Advent - four weeks of preparation before the celebration of Jesus' birth
- Christmas - recalling the Nativity of Jesus Christ and his manifestation to the peoples of the world
- Lent - a six-week period of penance before Easter
- Sacred Paschal Triduum - the holiest "Three Days" of the Church's year, where the Christian people recall the suffering, death, and resurrection of Jesus
- Easter - fifty days of joyful celebration of the Lord's resurrection from the dead and his sending forth of the Holy Spirit
- Ordinary Time - divided into two sections (one span of 4-8 weeks after Christmas Time and another lasting about six months after Easter Time), wherein the faithful consider the fullness of Jesus' teachings and works among his people

The mystery of Christ, unfolded through the cycle of the year, calls us to live his mystery in our own lives. This call is best illustrated in the lives of Mary and the other saints, celebrated by the Church throughout the year. In the feasts of the Saints, the Paschal Mystery of Christ is proclaimed and renewed.

Quotable Pope Francis

Especially in this Holy Year of Mercy, let us make sure that the Gospel becomes ever more incarnate in our own lives too. Drawing near to the Gospel, meditating on it and incarnating it in daily life are the best ways to understand Jesus and bring Him to others.
