EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

One of the important responsibilities of a pastor is to assure the safety of the Blessed Sacrament. Over time, I have written about my continued concern over the lack of parishioners during Eucharist Adoration. With growing frequency, the Sacrament is left unattended in the chapel or with only one person in attendance. Perhaps there is not the same need as before for the length of time the Sacrament is exposed. Therefore I have reluctantly made the decision that, beginning this weekend, there will not be adoration on Saturday and Sunday.

However, the chapel will remain open for prayer. I certainly hope that more will take advantage of adoration so that I do not to reduce the time further.

A MESSAGE FROM
THE SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL
HOLY NAME OF MARY CONFERENCE

TO THE PARISHIONERS OF ASSUMPTION PARISH

The Holy Name of Mary Conference would like to thank our biggest benefactors, the Parishioners of Assumption Parish. Your generosity is appreciated very much by the local Vincentians and especially by our West Windsor neighbours who needed help in the past year.

During the past year, HNM conference Vincentians made over 1,700 visits to homes bringing food and friendship to families and individuals in our community. Beds were given to those needing a proper place to sleep. Furniture and clothing were given to those who were without. Christmas gifts as well as Christmas dinners were provided for over 70 families and individuals. All these things were funded by generous gifts from individuals, schools, and several parishes in the greater Windsor area. The greatest amount of financial support received, as always, was from the members of our parish. Your generosity answered the question, "Who is my neighbour?"

Holy Name of Mary Conference will continue to feed and clothe those in Windsor West as we live our mission – to serve Christ in the poor with love, respect, justice and joy.

We ask that you pray for us and for those that we serve.

God bless you all!
Ivan Benko
President, HNM, SSVP

WHOSE STORY IS IT?
TELLING THE CHURCH'S STORY.

To this day, religion shapes world history. Whether or not we are believers, we are shaped by faith and the actions of the faithful.

The Catholic Church remains one of the world's important institutions. It is powerful. It is also wealthy and mysterious. It has scandal and controversy yet still speaks to the finest of human values. Those are all elements of a fascinating and important news story.

Is it your story?
